The editorial board invites submission of scholarly articles and original documents in a wide variety of fields such as black, cultural, economic, ethnic, labor, military, political, religious, social and urban history. The journal accepts articles which have their geographical setting in various localities of the Commonwealth or the Middle Atlantic region if Pennsylvania is involved. Articles are selected for their appeal to both the specialist in the field and the general reader. The editor does not assume responsibility for statements of fact or opinion by the contributors.

Manuscripts should conform with the University of Chicago Press Manual of Style, 12th Edition. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript.

Contributions should be sent to the following individuals:

articles and documents: Dr. Harold E. Cox, Department of History, Wilkes College, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. 18703;

news of meetings, projects, manuscript collections, personal notices, etc.:
Harold L. Myers, Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, Box 1026, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17120;

books for review and reviews: Dr. Charles D. Cashdollar, Department of History, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Indiana, Pa. 15701

ABOUT THE AUTHORS		191

The Pennsylvania Historical Association, in cooperation with local and regional historical societies and agencies, seeks to advance the study of Pennsylvania's heritage. It is the only statewide historical society now active in the Commonwealth. By its annual meetings held successively in different parts of the state, its publication of the quarterly journal, Pennsylvania History, and a series of pamphlets, Pennsylvania History Studies, and its cosponsorship of an annual research conference in Pennsylvania history and the Institute of Pennsylvania Life and Culture, the association endeavors to stimulate scholarly activity and arouse popular interest in the state's history.

Pennsylvania History is published in January, April, July, and October, by the Pennsylvania Historical Association, 704 New Liberal Arts Building, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pa. 16802. The articles are listed in American Historical Review and The Journal of American History and are abstracted in America: History and Life. Articles in religious history are abstracted in Theological and Religious Index. The journal is printed by Payne Printery, Inc., Dallas, Pa. 18612. Second class postage is paid at Dallas, Pennsylvania, and at additional mailing offices.

Annual dues to the Pennsylvania Historical Association are $10.00 for individuals and $12.50 for institutions. The journal is sent to all members of the association. Single numbers can be purchased for $3.50 plus postage. Most issues are available back to 1957. Make checks out to the Pennsylvania Historical Association. Communications regarding membership, subscriptions, and general business of the association should be sent to the business secretary, Dr. Neil A. McNall, Department of History, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pa. 16802.
