Publishers of Pennsylvania History, a quarterly, and the Pennsylvania History Studies Series

The Pennsylvania Historical Association, in cooperation with local and regional historical societies and agencies, seeks to advance the study of Pennsylvania's heritage. It is the only statewide historical society now active in the Commonwealth. By its publication of the quarterly journal Pennsylvania History, a series of pamphlets known as The Pennsylvania History Studies, and its annual meetings held successively in different parts of the state, the association stimulates scholarly activity and arouses popular interest in the state's history.

The association's invitation is a broad one. It appeals to all those in Pennsylvania who are interested in history, regardless of whether history is for them an avocation or a vocation. It invites to membership educators at all levels, authors and editors of historical studies, administrators for the study of history, archivists, historic site supervisors, historic preservationists, and those in other professions that promote the study of history. The association welcomes both traditional and non-traditional practitioners and students of history. Please join today!

THE ELITE OF OUR PEOPLE

JOSEPH WILLSON'S SKETCHES OF BLACK UPPER-CLASS LIFE
IN ANTEBELLUM PHILADELPHIA

Edited by Julie Winch

"Savvy researchers have long relied on Joseph Willson's little book for its contemporary view of being black in Philadelphia and for its general insights into nineteenth-century African American life. Julie Winch's meticulously researched and knowledgeably annotated edition brings the book alive again for a new generation of readers."

—Emma J. Lapsansky, Haverford College

212 pages • 9 illustrations • $16.95 paper

IN THE HANDS OF STRANGERS

READINGS ON FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC SLAVE TRADING
AND THE CRISIS OF THE UNION

Edited by Robert Edgar Conrad

"The strength of this unique work is that it is so solid in its discussion of the middle passage, but equally comprehensive as the trade moved onto land and even headed west into the heartland."

—Douglas R. Egerton, Le Moyne College

536 pages • 18 illustrations • 1 map • $45.00 cloth

MAKING AND REMAKING PENNSYLVANIA'S CIVIL WAR

Edited by William Alan Blair and William Pencak

"A valuable contribution to the literature on the American Civil War. I know of no volume that contains as many key insights into Pennsylvania's role in the war."

—J. Matthew Gallman, Gettysburg College

352 pages • 37 illustrations • $35.00 cloth

AMERICAN PICTURESQUE

John Conron

"This is American cultural history at its most stimulating. Conron broadly explicates the concept of the picturesque in all of its permutations in American landscape and genre painting, architecture and landscape planning, as well as literature."

—John Wilmerding, Princeton University

388 pages • 25 color / 129 b&w illustrations • $55.00 cloth
