The Pennsylvania Historical Association (PHA) seeks an editor for Pennsylvania History. The editor will be responsible for soliciting, reviewing, and managing manuscripts for the journal; preparing for publication and copy-editing each issue of the journal; maintaining the journal in good order; handling correspondence related to the journal, working with the printer/publisher in bringing out the journal in a timely and efficient manner; reporting on the journal's activity to the PHA; and handling all other regular duties of an editor of a scholarly journal. The editor will work cooperatively with the book review editor, associate editor(s), and editorial advisory board, maintain good relationship and regular communication with PHA officers. The editor receives an honorarium, a small travel allowance and certain office expenses. The Editor's home institution will be expected to provide released time for the editor and other forms of institutional support, which might come in the form of secretarial support, office space, photocopying, and telephone and postage accounts. The position will commence no later than January 2003. Candidates should send a letter of application, including evidence of editorial experience and interest in Pennsylvania and Mid-Atlantic regional history, a current c.v., and at an appropriate time a letter indicating institutional support to Dr. Randall M. Miller, President, PHA, c/o Dept. of History, Saint Joseph's University, Philadelphia, PA 19131, by December 15, 2001. For questions, please e-mail miller@sju.edu or call him at 610-660-1748.

Manuscripts and Reviews

The editor invites the submission of articles dealing with the social, intellectual, economic, political and cultural history of Pennsylvania and the Middle Atlantic region. Articles may reflect investigation of new areas of research or may reflect on past scholarship. Material that is primarily of an antiquarian or genealogical nature will not be considered.

Pennsylvania History publishes documents previously unpublished and of interest to students of the Middle Atlantic region. The journal also reviews books dealing primarily with Pennsylvania history or which shed significant light on aspects of the state's past.

Manuscripts must be submitted in three copies and should conform with the Chicago Manual of Style. Notes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript. We encourage submission of manuscripts on discs. Please do not mail your discs until we have accepted your article and indicated corrections to be made.

The present editor no longer accepts manuscripts. Please wait until a new editor is selected.

News of meetings, projects, exhibits, manuscript collections and related matters should be sent to William Pencak at the address listed above.

Send books for review and names of individuals who wish to review for the journal to Paul Douglas Newman, Department of History, University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown, PA., 15904.
