University Park, PA 16802-5500

Publishers of Pennsylvania History, a quarterly, and the Pennsylvania History Studies Series

The Pennsylvania Historical Association, in cooperation with local and regional historical societies and agencies, seeks to advance the study of Pennsylvania's heritage. It is the only statewide historical society now active in the Commonwealth. By its publication of the quarterly journal Pennsylvania History, a series of pamphlets known as The Pennsylvania History Studies, and its annual meetings held successively in different parts of the state, the association stimulates scholarly activity and arouses popular interest in the state's history.

The association's invitation is a broad one. It appeals to all those in Pennsylvania who are interested in history, regardless of whether history is for them an avocation or a vocation. It invites to membership educators at all levels, authors and editors of historical studies, administrators for the study of history, archivists, historic site supervisors, historic preservationists, and those in other professions that promote the study of history. The association welcomes both traditional and non-traditional practitioners and students of history. Please join today!

Essays on His Life and Legacy

Edited by Joseph Dorinson and William Pencak

Foreword by Henry Foner

232pp. $45 illustrated case binding (7 x 10)
Photographs, notes, index
ISBN 0-7864-1153-8 2002

Paul Robeson was born April 9, 1898, in Princeton, New Jersey, the son of an escaped slave. He rose to unparalleled heights as an athlete, actor, singer, and activist, and was arguably the most prominent African American from the 1920s through the 1950s. This work is a compilation of 18 essays written by scholars and activists that were presented at a one-day conference held at Long Island University's Brooklyn campus on February 28, 1998, to honor Robeson's life and legacy. The essays discuss his significance as a singer, his political activism, his efforts to achieve solidarity between African Americans and Jews, the important role played by his wife, Eslanda Goode Robeson, in his struggles, his founding of the Freedom newspaper during the Korean War, his contemporary relevance, and the way conservative Americans turned against him, refused to discuss him in the press, and tried to silence his voice.

Joseph Dorinson, a professor of history, teaches at Long Island University and lives in Brooklyn, New York. Also a professor of history, William Pencak teaches at Penn State University. He lives in University Park, Pennsylvania.
