SUBMISSION INFORMATION

The editor invites the submission of articles dealing with the history of Pennsylvania and the Middle Atlantic region, regardless of their specialty. Prospective authors are urged to review past issues of Pennsylvania History: A Journal of Mid-Atlantic Studies, where they will note articles in social, intellectual, economic, environmental, political, and cultural history, from the distant and recent past. Articles may investigate new areas of research or they may reflect on past scholarship. Material that is primarily of an antiquarian or genealogical nature will not be considered.

Pennsylvania History publishes documents previously unpublished and of interest to scholars of the Middle Atlantic region. The Journal also reviews books, exhibits, and other media dealing primarily with Pennsylvania history or that shed significant light on the state’s past.

Please conform to the Chicago Manual of Style in preparing your manuscript and submit three copies to the editor, Jean R. Soderlund, Department of History, Lehigh University, 9 West Packer Avenue, Bethlehem, PA 18015–3081. Notes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts should be submitted electronically when the article has been accepted for publication.

News of meetings, projects, exhibits, manuscript collections, and related matters should be sent to the editor at the address above or by email: jrsa@lehigh.edu.

Send books for review and names of individuals who wish to review for the Journal to Paul Douglas Newman, Department of History, University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown, Johnstown, PA, 15904.

On the cover: Stamp Act broadside. Americans throughout the colonies regarded the Stamp Act of 1765 as signaling “dreadful, dismal, doleful, dolorous, and dollar-less” times ahead, as the caption accompanying this image claimed.
