SUBMISSION INFORMATION

The editor invites the submission of articles dealing with the history of Pennsylvania and the Middle Atlantic region, regardless of their specialty. Prospective authors are urged to review past issues of Pennsylvania History: A Journal of Mid-Atlantic Studies, where they will note articles in social, intellectual, economic, environmental, political, and cultural history, from the distant and recent past. Articles may investigate new areas of research or they may reflect on past scholarship. Material that is primarily of an antiquarian or genealogical nature will not be considered.

Pennsylvania History publishes documents previously unpublished and of interest to scholars of the Middle Atlantic region. The Journal also reviews books, exhibits, and other media dealing primarily with Pennsylvania history or that shed significant light on the state's past.

Please conform to the Chicago Manual of Style in preparing your manuscript and submit three copies to the editor, Paul Douglas Newman, Department of History, University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown, 450 Schoolhouse Rd, Johnstown, PA 15904. Or, send electronically to pnewman@pitt.edu.

News of meetings, projects, exhibits, manuscript collections, and related matters should be sent to the editor at the address above or by email: pnewman@pitt.edu.

Send books for review and names of individuals who wish to review for the Journal to Thomas J. Kiffmeyer, Department of Geography, Government, and History, Morehead State University, 450 Rader Hall, Morehead, KY 40351, or electronically to t.kiffmeyer@morehead-st.edu.

PENNSYLVANIA HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

Call for Paper and Panel Proposals

Annual Meeting October 19–21, 2006

Philadelphia, PA

The Pennsylvania Historical Association invites proposals for individual papers, complete panels, and special sessions to be given at its 74th annual meeting in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on October 19–21, 2006. This meeting is open to all scholars, researchers, educators, and professionals who share an interest in the history of Pennsylvania and the mid-Atlantic region from the founding years to the present. The PHA welcomes proposals on a wide range of themes and from numerous disciplines, including but not limited to history, material culture, educational strategies and theories, and museum studies. There is no overarching topic that will define this next conference, but given the focus of public and academic attention on the tercentenary of Benjamin Franklin's birth throughout the year, sessions relating to this topic are particularly welcome. Those whose proposals are accepted for the program must be members of the PHA. Please submit 5 copies of all proposals to the program committee chair, Cathy Matson, at the Department of History, University of Delaware, 121 Munroe Hall, Newark, DE 19716. Proposals should include title, description of paper or panel, a brief CV, and full contact information. Questions may be directed to cmatson@udel.edu. Deadline for receipt of proposals is April 15, 2006; participants will be notified of the committee's decision by May 1, 2006.
