CALL FOR PAPERS

Pennsylvania Historical Association
Annual Meeting, October 16–18, 2008
Bethlehem, Pennsylvania

Call for Paper and Panel Proposals
77th Annual Conference

The Pennsylvania Historical Association invites proposals for individual papers, panels, roundtable discussions, and special sessions to be given at its 77th annual meeting in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania on October 16–18, 2008. This meeting is open to scholars, researchers, educators, public historians, and professionals who share an interest in the history of Pennsylvania and the mid-Atlantic region from the founding years to the present. The PHA welcomes proposals on a wide range of themes and from numerous disciplines, including but not limited to history, material culture, educational strategies and theories, historic preservation, and museum studies. Full panel proposals are encouraged.

The 2008 conference commemorates the 75th anniversary of the PHA's annual meeting; the first one was held at Bethlehem and hosted by Lehigh University in 1933. To honor this anniversary, the PHA especially welcomes panels and papers that explore the continuities and transformations that Pennsylvania history—and particularly its themes, ideas, source materials, and interpretations—has undergone since the organization met for the first time in 1933.

Although electronic submissions are preferred, those submitting proposals through regular mail should send six copies of their proposal. Proposals must include a title, description of paper or panel, brief CV for all participants involved, and full contact information.

Please send your submissions and any questions you may have to the program committee chair, Judith Ridner, Department of History, Muhlenberg College, 2400 Chew St., Allentown, PA 18104, phone (484) 664-3326 or email at ridner@muhlenberg.edu.

Proposals will be accepted until January 15, 2008. Participants will be notified of the committee's decision no later than April.

CONTRIBUTORS

CHARLES BERGENGREN was born and raised in New England (missionary ancestors), attended Oberlin but graduated from the City college of New York, performed with the Ontologic-Hysteric Theater and Fluxus and worked at the Anthology Film Archives while living in New York City (in the Mythic 1970s), got graduate degrees in Folklore and Folklife at the University of Pennsylvania (1988 dissertation on the Pennsylvania German architecture of schaefferstown) and has been teaching all of the above at the Cleveland institute of Art since 1991.

ANTHONY L. ("TONY") BLAIR is Dean of Academic Affairs of the Campolo College of Graduate and Professional Studies at Eastern University; he is also an ordained minister in the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. He holds a Ph.D. in History from Temple University and a Doctor of Ministry from George Fox University.

CYNTHIA G. FALK is Associate Professor at the Cooperstown Graduate Program, a master's degree program in museum studies jointly sponsored by the State University of New York College at Oneonta and the New York State Historical Association. Dr. Falk is the author of the forthcoming book Architecture and Artifacts of the Pennsylvania Germans: Constructing Identity in Early America, published by Penn State University Press.

BRADLEY SMITH is an adjunct history instructor with Harrisburg Area Community College and is also a curator with the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Comission. A native of Schaefferstown, PA, he grew up within two blocks of the Gemberling-Rex house.

BEVERLY TOMEK is an instructor at the University of Houston-Victoria, where she teaches courses in US social history, African-American history, and race. She is currently preparing a book manuscript entitled, "Seeking a Manageable Population: Limitation, Colonization, and Black Resistance in Pennsylvania's Antislavery Movement."

DIANE WENGER is Assistant Professor of History at Wilkes University, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where she teaches Colonial America and the Early Republic, Women's History, and Material Culture. Her book, The Country Storekeeper in Pennsylvania: Creating Networks in The Early American Economy, 1790-1807, is forthcoming from Penn State Press.

SPORTS IN PENNSYLVANIA

By Karen Guenther
Mansfield University

In this wide-ranging history of sports in Pennsylvania, Karen Guenther leads readers from pre-colonial contests among Native American tribes to the big business of modern professional sports. From amateur competition, to colleges, to the pros, readers will relive championship seasons and struggles with defeat – and along the way, follow the important role of sports in social, cultural, and economic life. The volume also provides a guide to Pennsylvania sports in the movies, in museums, and at historic sites, giving readers the opportunity to follow their favorite teams beyond the stadiums and playing fields. This concise, authoritative survey serves as a gateway for general readers who wish to explore the rich variety of sporting life in Pennsylvania.

THE PERFECT SEASON

HOW PENN STATE CAME TO STOP A HURRICANE AND WIN A NATIONAL FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

M. G. Missanelli

"Jan. 2, 1987. It is at once the most profound and significant day of the nearly 15,000 Joe Paterno has spent as Penn State's football coach. On that night, in the spotlight Arizona desert, Paterno's Nittany Lions defeated Miami in a national championship matchup whose contrasts were as vivid as the personalities involved. In The Perfect Season, Mike Missanelli carefully dissects and recreates this memorable game, one that would serve as a perfect little morality play, a showcase for all that was right and wrong with college football."

—Frank Fitzpatrick, author of The Lion in Autumn

"Missanelli brings to life the 1986 national football championship season, with a great account of the Nittany Lion victory over the combat fatigue-clad Miami Hurricanes. The Foreword by D. J. Dozier is a delight as are various vignettes of the participants such as Jerry Sandusky, Shane Conlan, Bob White, and the unfortunate-in-life John Bruno."

—Ronald A. Smith,
author of Big-Time Football at Harvard 1905

The 1987 NCAA championship football game between the Penn State Nittany Lions and the University of Miami Hurricanes is often considered the most memorable championship game in all of college football history. Both teams were undefeated going into the game, but the Hurricanes were heavily favored. Penn State pulled off a surprising upset, handing the University of Miami team its only loss of the season. In The Perfect Season, Missanelli retells the story not just of this championship game but also of Penn State's entire season.

A TRADITIONAL MEDICAL PRACTICE IN THE MODERN WORLD

David W. Kriebel

Known in Pennsylvania Dutch as brauche or braucherei, the folk-healing practice of powwowing was thought to draw upon the power of God to heal all manner of physical and spiritual ills. Yet some people believed, and still believe today, that this power to heal came not from God, but from the devil. Controversy over powwowing came to a climax in 1929 with the York Hex Murder Trial, in which one powwower from York County, Pennsylvania, killed another powwower.

In Powwowing Among the Pennsylvania Dutch, David Kriebel examines the practice of powwowing and shows that, contrary to popular belief, the practice of powwowing is still active today. Because powwowing lacks extensive scholarly documentation, David Kriebel's research is both a groundbreaking inquiry and a necessity for the scholar of Pennsylvania German history and culture.

The fact that powwowing is still practiced may come as a surprise to some readers, but included in this book are the interviews Kriebel had with living powwowers during his seven years of fieldwork in southeastern and central Pennsylvania. Along with these interviews, Kriebel includes biographical sketches of seven living powwowers; descriptions of powwowing as it was practiced in years past, compared with the practice today; a discussion of the belief of powwowing as healing; and a discussion of the future, if any, of powwowing, and what it will take for powwowing to continue to survive.
