SUBMISSION INFORMATION

Pennsylvania History presents previously unpublished works that are of interest to scholars of the Middle Atlantic region. The Journal also reviews books, exhibits, and other media dealing primarily with Pennsylvania history or that shed significant light on the state's past.

The editors invite the submission of articles dealing with the history of Pennsylvania and the Middle Atlantic region, regardless of their specialty. Prospective authors should review past issues of Pennsylvania History: A Journal of Mid-Atlantic Studies, where they will note articles in social, intellectual, economic, environmental, political, and cultural history, from the distant and recent past. Articles may investigate new areas of research or may reflect on past scholarship. Material that is primarily of an antiquarian or genealogical nature will not be considered. Please conform to the Chicago Manual of Style in preparing your manuscript, and refer to the Pennsylvania History stylesheet at pa-history.org/publications/pahistory.html/

Articles should be submitted online at www.editorialmanager.com/PAH. Authors will need to create a profile, and will be guided through the steps to upload manuscripts to the editorial office.

Send books for review to Andrew Arnold, History Department, 115 Lytle Hall, Kutztown University of Pennsylvania, Kutztown, PA 19530, arnold@kutztown.edu.

THE PENNSYLVANIA HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

The Pennsylvania Historical Association advocates and advances knowledge about the history and culture of Pennsylvania and the mid-Atlantic region, because understanding how the past informs the present helps us shape a better future. PHA achieves this mission by fostering the teaching and study of Pennsylvania history and culture through:

- Publishing Pennsylvania History: A Journal of Mid-Atlantic Studies,
- Publishing a book series on historical topics of interest in partnership with Temple University Press,
- Connecting and encouraging the networking of scholars, and
  - Hosting an annual conference.

The PHA holds its annual meeting in a different Pennsylvania location each fall. The annual meetings bring together historians, educators, and history buffs to participate in a wide variety of panel discussions, to hear speakers, and to enjoy meeting others interested in Pennsylvania history. We are pleased to have partnerships with other organizations throughout the Commonwealth to promote an interest in Pennsylvania history. For more information visit www.pa-history.org.
