

RETURN OF THE SICK AT LITITZ HOSPITAL, AUGUST 23, 1778.

BY JOHN W. JORDAN.

In the PENNA. MAG., Vol. xx, No. 2, pp. 137, we printed an article on "The Military Hospitals at Bethlehem and Lititz during the Revolution." The hospital at Lititz was open from December 19, 1777, to August 28, 1778, Dr. Francis Alison, Jr., being the senior surgeon in charge. Through the courtesy of Dr. Gaillard Hunt, Chief of the Manuscript Division, Library of Congress, we are enabled to give a list of the patients on the date they were transferred to the hospitals at Lancaster and the Yellow Springs.

There are five Ridges to pass upon this road:

I. The Kittochtinny hills, three in number, a short distance beyond Strasburg.

II. Sideling hill, just beyond Wild's tavern, and is seven miles across.

III. The Allegheny hills; these are about fifteen miles across.

IV. The Laurel ridge, about six miles across.

V. The Chestnut ridge, beyond Fort Ligonier.

There are three roads leading from Lancaster to Carlisle:

I. By way of York town, which is the post road crossing Susquehanna at Anderson's ferry.

II. By Rankin's ferry, said to be the shortest.

III. By Middletown, the route in this table.

If a traveller on the last mentioned road has no wish to call at Harrisburg, he can, by crossing Susquehanna River at Chamber's ferry, save two miles.

From Mount Rock to Shippensburg, fourteen miles, there is no run of water across the high road.
