ROBERT L. BLOOM is a member of the Department of History at Gettysburg College. His article on Robert Montgomery Bird is an adaptation of a chapter from his doctoral dissertation, "The History of the Philadelphia North American," which has recently been accepted at Columbia University.

LOUIS H. ARKY, a student of the history of American labor, is making a study of the Philadelphia workingmen's movement, 1827-1831, of which his article is a part. He is a doctoral candidate in American Civilization at the University of Pennsylvania.
