JOHN E. POMFRET, Director of the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery, San Marino, California, completes his trilogy on Quaker settlement in America with his article on the First Purchasers of Pennsylvania. His articles on the proprietors of East and West New Jersey were also published in the Magazine. Dr. Pomfret's study, The Province of West New Jersey, 1609-1702, has recently been published by the Princeton University Press.

FREDERICK B. TOLLES, Director of the Friends Historical Library of Swarthmore College, has contributed a number of articles to the Magazine. His research and writing are devoted largely to the early history of the Friends in Pennsylvania, and he is currently preparing a brief biography of James Logan.

NICHOLAS B. WAINWRIGHT, Editor of the Magazine, has long intended for publication the documents which are found in his two articles in this issue. He overcame his diffidence at placing these two articles in a single issue because they supplemented so closely the articles by Dr. Pomfret and Dr. Tolles.
