EDWARD C. CARTER, II, Lecturer in American and Modern European History at St. Stephen's School, Rome, is writing a book on "The Radical Irish and the Rise of the Jeffersonian Republicans, 1790-1801." His article reflects a part of his research on his doctoral dissertation (Bryn Mawr College, 1962), which was entitled "The Political Activities of Mathew Carey, Nationalist, 1760-1814."

KENNETH L. CARROLL, a native of Easton, Maryland, and a member of the Society of Friends, is Professor of Religion at Southern Methodist University. His articles on Quaker History and on the Bible have appeared in many journals. In addition, he is the author of Joseph Nichols and the Nicholites (1962), and editor of The Creative Centre of Quakerism (1965).

EDWIN WOLF, 2ND, has been a frequent contributor to the Magazine and is a prolific writer, the biographer of Dr. Rosenbach, and the historian of the Jews in Philadelphia. As Librarian of the Library Company of Philadelphia he has emphasized the significance of the Library's vast collection of rare books.

JEAN S. STRAUB, a graduate of Smith College, earned her master's and doctor's degrees from the University of Pennsylvania. After serving as Vice-Dean of the University's Graduate School of Education, she has recently resigned in order to return to teaching and to writing the history of William Penn Charter School.
