Contributors

HANNAH BENNER ROACH, a former contributor, is the Editor of the Pennsylvania Genealogical Magazine.

JOHN D. KILBOURNE, former Director of the Historical Society of York County and, subsequently, Librarian of the Maryland Historical Society, joined the staff of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania as Curator in December, 1966.

GEORGE B. ROBERTS, prominent Philadelphia architect, furnished the introduction to Dr. Frederick Fraley's poems, which appeared in our January, 1966 issue. He and his wife Mary are the authors of Triumph on Fairmount: Fiske Kimball and the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

EDWARD P. ALEXANDER has held a number of distinguished positions in historical work and since 1946 has been with Colonial Williamsburg, currently as Director of Interpretation and Vice President.
