NICHOLAS B. WAINWRIGHT has served as Editor of The Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography for the past twenty-five years.

JULIAN P. BOYD, a former Librarian and Editor of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania and subsequently Librarian at Princeton University, is the Editor of The Papers of Thomas Jefferson. He is President of the American Philosophical Society and a past president of the American Historical Association.

JACOB E. COOKE, Professor of History at Lafayette College, was Associate Editor of the first fifteen volumes of The Hamilton Papers. The author of many books and articles, his biography of Tench Coxe will be published soon under the auspices of the Institute of Early American History and Culture, Williamsburg.

EUGENE R. SLASKI earned his Ph.D. at Florida State University. His research interests include the activities of nonrevolutionaries in Revolutionary Pennsylvania. He is an Assistant Professor of History at the Pennsylvania State University, Allentown Campus.

BARRY L. SALKIN received his Ph.D. in American History from Harvard University in 1974. He is currently a third-year law student at Harvard Law School. His research interests are nineteenth-century criminal law and legal responses to deviant behavior.

RALPH LOWELL ECKERT is a doctoral candidate at Louisiana State University where his dissertation topic is a study of General John B. Gordon. His interest lies in Civil War and military history. However, he has done extensive work on Pennsylvania's "Underground Railroad."
