PMHB Online

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA, in partnership with the History Cooperative and with the Pennsylvania State University, is bringing The Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography into the digital age!

Beginning in January 2006, current issues of PMBH will be published by the History Cooperative (<http://www.historycooperative.org>) simultaneous with the print publication. Later in 2006, back issues, from our first issue in 1877 through 2001, will become available through the Pennsylvania State University Libraries' (<http://www.libraries.psu.edu>) developing electronic database of Pennsylvania history sources. Publication of new issues of PMHB will be delayed for five years on the Penn State site, which will be freely available to all. Researchers will be able to search across all journals in the History Cooperative and the Penn State databases and access full text of articles and reviews.

Authors are welcome to contact the editor (pmhb@hsp.org or 215-732-6200 x208) to learn more about this new venture. Authors who prefer not to have their articles made available online should contact the editor to make such an arrangement.

THE LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA and THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA Visiting Research Fellowships in Colonial and U.S. History and Culture for 2006–2007

These two independent research libraries will jointly award approximately thirty one-month fellowships for research in residence in either or both collections during 2006–2007. The two institutions, adjacent to each other in Center City Philadelphia, have complementary collections capable of supporting research in a variety of fields and disciplines relating to the history of America and the Atlantic world from the 17th through the 19th centuries, as well as mid-Atlantic regional history to the present.

The Library Company's collections (500,000 volumes) represent the full range of American print culture from colonial times to the end of the 19th century. The Historical Society's archives (18 million items, now enriched by the holdings of the Balch Institute for Ethnic Studies) document the social, cultural, and economic history of a region central to the nation's development, with new strength in ethnic and immigrant history. Both collections are strong in African American and women's history, popular print culture, newspapers and printed ephemera, and images of the Philadelphia region. For information on the collections, visit www.hsp.org and www.librarycompany.org.

One-month fellowships carry a stipend of $1,800 and are tenable for any one-month period between June 2006 and May 2007. (Two Barra Foundation International Fellowships, each for $2,000 plus travel expenses, are reserved for foreign national scholars resident outside the U.S.) We invite inquiries about the appropriateness of proposed topics.

The deadline for receipt of one-month fellowship applications is March 1, 2006, with a decision to be made by April 15. To apply, submit 6 copies each of a resume, a 2–4 page description of the proposed research, and a letter of reference. Please send materials to James Green, Library Company, 1314 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107. Phone: 215-546-3181, email: jgreen@librarycompany.org.

The Face of Decline

The Pennsylvania Anthracite Region in the Twentieth Century

Thomas Dublin and Walter Licht

"The Face of Decline is a terrific book. Thomas Dublin and Walter Licht brilliantly portray in vivid detail not only the many human dimensions of the downfall of the hard coal industry but also the mining families' considerable resilience in meeting adversity."

—Alan Derickson, Pennsylvania State University, author of Black Lung: Anatomy of a Public Health Disaster
