

PMHB Online

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA, in partnership with the History Cooperative and with Penn State University Libraries, has brought The Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography into the digital age! Soon PMHB will also be available through JSTOR.

Current issues, beginning with the January 2006 issue, are available to subscribers of the print edition on the History Cooperative Web site simultaneous with print publication (<http://www.historycooperative.org>). In order to access the History Cooperative's archive, researchers will need to log in using their ID number, which appears on their mailing label.

Back issues of PMHB, from 1907 through 1999, are available as part of Penn State University Libraries' developing electronic database in Pennsylvania history (<http://publications.libraries.psu.edu/eresources/pmhb>). Access is open to everyone, and a new volume will be added every year.

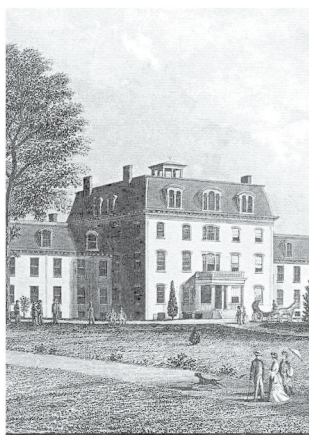

The oldest continuously published state historical journal, PMHB has been published in print since 1877. Now it is available online, too, making scholarship on Pennsylvania history more accessible than ever.

A "BEST BOOK OF 2006" FROM
The American Journal of Nursing

Founding Friends:

Families, Staff, and Patients at the Friends Asylum
in early Nineteenth-Century Philadelphia

Patricia D'Antonio

"Impressively researched.... the story of the rise and decline of a simile."

Jonathan Sadowsky, Case Western Reserve University, in JAMA

"The first substantive reinterpretation of the nineteenth-century mental hospital to appear in recent years....
This is a fresh, stimulating new treatment of an important subject that will take its place alongside the best work
on the subject."

Nancy Tomes, SUNY at Stony Brook

$46.50 hardcover

ISBN 0-934223-82-3

---

Studies in Eighteenth-Century America and the Transatlantic World

a new series from

LEHIGH UNIVERSITY PRESS

B040 Christmas-Saucon Hall, 14 East Packer Avenue, Bethlehem, PA 18015

<http://www.lehigh.edu/library/lup/>

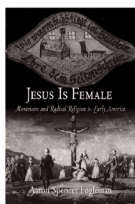

Order from:

Associated University Presses, 2010 Eastpark Boulevard, Cranbury, NJ 08512

<http://www.aupresses.com/>

tel. (609) 655-4770 fax. (609) 655-8366

NEW BOOKS FROM PENN PRESS

JESUS IS FEMALE

Moravians and Radical Religion in Early America

Aaron Spencer Fogleman

"A bold re-envisioning of the Moravians and their importance in the eighteenth century."—Jon Sensbach, University of Florida

Early American Studies

2007 | 328 pages | 8 color, 19 b/w illus. | Cloth | $49.95

MANY IDENTITIES, ONE NATION

The Revolution and Its Legacy in the Mid-Atlantic

Liam Riordan

Explores how the American Revolution politicized religious, racial, and ethnic identity among the diverse inhabitants of Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey from 1770 to 1830.

Early American Studies

2007 | 392 pages | 27 illus. | Cloth | $49.95

PEOPLES OF THE RIVER VALLEYS

The Odyssey of the Delaware Indians

Amy C. Schutt

A fresh interpretation of the history of the Delaware, or Lenape, Indians in the context of events in the mid-Atlantic region and the Ohio Valley.

Early American Studies

2007 | 264 pages | 14 illus. | Cloth | $45.00

BACK IN PRINT

DELAWARE'S FORGOTTEN FOLK

The Story of the Moors and Nanticokes

C. A. Weslager

Photographs by L. T. Alexander and drawings by John Swientochowski

"A study of profound sociological significance."—Pennsylvania History

2006 | 232 pages | 13 illus. | Paper | $19.95

BACK IN PRINT

THE REFORMATION OF AMERICAN QUAKERISM, 1748–1783

Jack D. Marietta

"The most important book on eighteenth-century American Quakerism."

—Gary B. Nash, University of California, Los Angeles

2007 | 376 pages | Paper | $24.95

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA
PRESS

www.pennpress.org
800-537-5487

Join HSP and Invest in the Future

Help inaugurate the Penn Commonwealth Circle—PCwC

The Penn Commonwealth Circle recognizes those generous individuals who are leaving a future legacy to The Historical Society of Pennsylvania. By remembering HSP in your estate plan—through your will, a donation of retirement funds, a trust, or a unique planned giving strategy tailored to meet your needs and wishes, you will safeguard over two million irreplaceable treasures:

The earliest draft of the Constitution of the United States, July 1787
A copy of the Emancipation Proclamation signed by President Lincoln
A first-hand account from a survivor of the Johnstown Flood and countless other thought-provoking memories . . .

Ways to Give

Simply make a bequest in your will by designating a gift of property, life insurance, or appreciated stocks and securities, or cash. This year, you can transfer funds from your pension or retirement fund (IRA) to HSP; it can give you an advantageous tax savings.

You can also work with your attorney to tailor a trust that will fund the HSP programs in which you most want to invest. Trusts are an excellent way of transferring appreciated assets to both your family and to HSP. Trusts can reduce or possibly eliminate estate or gift tax with the eventual transfer of your assets to a loved one.

Everyone Benefits

All of these gifts can personally benefit you and your family, reduce your estate tax, and help ensure that our treasured collections—the stories, diaries, and manuscripts—are cared for and understood for generations to come.

Please Call on Us

For more information or confidential help in planning your gift to support the future of HSP, please contact: Office of Planned Giving, The Historical Society of Pennsylvania, 1300 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107 or telephone Kim Sajet at 215-732-6200 x233 or e-mail scollins@hsp.org.

By informing us of your bequest, you will be invited to join the Penn Commonwealth Circle. To thank members, we will send a semiannual PCwC newsletter, Horizons, offering advice on the newest tax and estate planning strategies. We also extend lifetime benefits to members, including PCwC listing in our Annual Report; PCwC listings in our publications; special tours of HSP's collections; and invitations to exciting donor events.

We would prefer to say to you now: "Thank You So Much!" rather than convey our gratitude to an executor. Please share your plans with us so we can fulfill your wishes and thank you personally.