

Library Company of Philadelphia Post-Doctoral Fellowships for 2011-2012

National Endowment for the Humanities Post-Doctoral Fellowships support research in residence at the Library Company on any subject relevant to its collections, which cover a variety of fields relating to the history of America and the Atlantic World from the 17th through the 19th centuries. Fellows must be U.S. citizens or have been living in the U.S. for at least three years.

Program in Early American Economy and Society Post-Doctoral Fellowships support research in the collections of the Library Company and other nearby institutions on a wide range of topics concerning the American economy, such as Atlantic and global dimensions of the American economy, its commerce, business, technology, manufacturing, agriculture, internal development, or political economy, down to the 1850s.

The deadline for receipt of applications is November 1, 2010. The fellowships are tenable for one or two semesters during the academic year 2011-2010. The stipend for the NEH fellowships is $25,200 per semester; the stipend for the PEAES fellowships is $20,000 per semester. Applicants must hold a Ph.D. by September 1, 2011. Senior and mid-level scholars are also encouraged to apply.

The Historical Society of Pennsylvania
Balch Institute Fellowships in Ethnic and/or 20th-Century History and
Albert M. Greenfield Fellowship in 20th-Century
History
2011–2011

The Historical Society of Pennsylvania will award two one-month Balch Institute fellowships to enable research on topics related to the ethnic and immigrant experience in the United States and/or American cultural, social, political, or economic history post-1875 and one Albert M. Greenfield Fellowship for research in 20th-century history. The fellowships support one month of residency in Philadelphia during the 2011–2012 academic year. Past Balch fellows have done research on immigrant children, Italian American fascism, German Americans in the Civil War, Pan-Americanism, African American women's political activism, and much more. The Albert M. Greenfield Fellowship, supported by the Greenfield Foundation, is new this year.

The Historical Society of Pennsylvania, enriched by the holdings of the Balch Institute for Ethnic Studies, holds more than 19 million personal, organizational, and business manuscripts, as well 560,000 printed items and 312,000 graphic images that richly document the social, cultural, and economic history of a region central to many aspects of the nation's development from colonial times to the 20th century.

The stipend is $2,000. Fellowships are tenable for any one-month period between June 2011 and May 2012. They support advanced, postdoctoral, and dissertation research. Deadline for receipt of applications is March 1, 2011, with a decision to be made by April 15. For detailed information and application instructions visit www.librarycompany.org/fellowships.
