

The Library Company of Philadelphia
and
The Historical Society of Pennsylvania
Visiting Research Fellowships in Colonial and U.S. History and Culture for 2011–2012

These two independent research libraries will jointly award approximately 25 one-month fellowships for research in residence in either or both collections from June 2011 through May 2012. Named one-month fellowships support research in certain areas:

- Two Barra Foundation International Fellowships (which carry a special stipend of $2,500 plus a travel allowance) are reserved for citizens of other countries living outside the United States.
- The Society for Historians of the Early American Republic (SHEAR) sponsors two fellowships that support research in American history in the early national period.
- The William Reese Company supports a fellowship for research in American bibliography and the history of the book in the Americas.
- The William H. Helfand Fellowship for American Medicine, Science, and Society supports research in that subject area to 1900.
- LCP's Visual Culture Program Fellowship supports research focused on pictorial imagery in printed and graphic works from the colonial era to the early 20th century.
- The American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies (ASECS) sponsors a fellowship for research on projects related to the American 18th century.
- LCP's Program in Early American Economy and Society (PEAES) offers four short-term fellowships for research in that field.
- LCP's Program in African American History offers several Albert M. Greenfield Foundation Fellowships to support research in that field.

THE DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF APPLICATIONS IS MARCH 1, 2011, with a decision to be made by April 15.

To apply please complete the online cover sheet and submit one PDF containing a résumé and a 2–4 page description of the proposed research. One letter of recommendation should arrive under separate cover in PDF format as well. Please email materials to fellowships@librarycompany.org.

The Historical Society of Pennsylvania
Balch Institute Fellowships in Ethnic and/or 20th-Century History and
Albert M. Greenfield Fellowship in 20th-Century
History
2011–2012

The Historical Society of Pennsylvania will award two one-month Balch Institute fellowships to enable research on topics related to the ethnic and immigrant experience in the United States and/or American cultural, social, political, or economic history post-1875 and one Albert M. Greenfield Fellowship for research in 20th-century history. The fellowships support one month of residency in Philadelphia during the 2011–2012 academic year. Past Balch fellows have done research on immigrant children, Italian American fascism, German Americans in the Civil War, Pan-Americanism, African American women's political activism, and much more. The Albert M. Greenfield Fellowship, supported by the Greenfield Foundation, is new this year.

The Historical Society of Pennsylvania, enriched by the holdings of the Balch Institute for Ethnic Studies, holds more than 19 million personal, organizational, and business manuscripts, as well 560,000 printed items and 312,000 graphic images that richly document the social, cultural, and economic history of a region central to many aspects of the nation's development from colonial times to the 20th century.

The stipend is $2,000. Fellowships are tenable for any one-month period between June 2011 and May 2012. They support advanced, postdoctoral, and dissertation research. Deadline for receipt of applications is March 1, 2011, with a decision to be made by April 15.
