

WOMEN ENGINEERING STUDENTS DEVELOP SKILLS FOR THE WORKPLACE

Moderator: George R. Brewster
Program Manager - Human Resources
Corning Incorporated

George R. Brewster, Program Manager for Human Resources at Corning, joined the company in 1966. He subsequently served in supervisory positions at Corning plants in Medfield, Mass., and Greenville, OH. In 1972 he was transferred to Danville, KY, where he was named production superintendent in 1976. In 1977 he moved to Corning, NY, as the manager of College Relations and External Staffing. He was named to his present position in 1991. George is a life member of the Society of Women Engineers and a recipient of the Rodney D. Chipp Award by that organization. He also is Treasurer of the National Association of Minority Engineering Program Administrators (NAMEPA, Inc.), and currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Women in Engineering Program Advocates Network (WEPAN, Inc.).
