

REFLECTIONS FROM FEMALE DEANS

Moderator: Eleanor Baum, Ph.D.
Dean
The Cooper Union

Eleanor Baum is Dean of Engineering at The Cooper Union in New York City and Executive Director of the Cooper Union Research Foundation. She is an electrical engineer who received her Ph.D. in electrical engineering from Polytechnic University and her undergraduate education at City College of New York. She has worked in the aerospace industry and now consults for both government and industry.

Dr. Baum is a director of the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology. She chaired the Committee of Examiners for the Graduate Record Examination, and is on the Board of Governors of the Order of the Engineer. She is a Fellow of IEEE and SWE. She was the National Chairperson of the Engineering Deans Council, Vice President of ASEE and served on its Board for four years.

Presenters: Kathleen Mailer, Ph.D.
Dean, Science and Engineering
Seattle University

Carolyn Meyers, Ph.D.
Associate Dean
Georgia Institute of Technology

