

COLLABORATIVE EFFORTS BETWEEN WIE AND MEP PROGRAMS TO OPTIMIZE RESOURCES AND IMPACT
---

Moderator

Brenda G. Hart

Director, Minority and Women in Engineering Programs
University of Louisville

Brenda G. Hart graduated from Boston University with a BA in French and earned an M.Ed. in Student Personnel Services - College Counseling from the University of Louisville. She served as Assistant Director in the Office of Cooperative Education and Placement in the Academic Advising Office, College of Engineering for 14 years. Professor Hart currently serves as Director of Minority and Women in Engineering Programs at the University of Louisville. Her areas of interest include special programming for women and other underrepresented students in engineering as well as orientation courses for first-year students.

Professor Hart has served as a consultant to WEPAN and has served on the Board of Directors of NAMEPA as Chair of Region C.

Presenters

Sandra D. Johnson

Director, Minority Engineering Program
Pennsylvania State University

Karin Mack

Director, Center for Women in Engineering
University of California at Davis

Discussant

Ryan Mitchell, Ph.D.

Director, Mentorship Opportunities
University of California at Davis

