

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION UPDATES, INNOVATIONS, NEW INITIATIVES

Moderator

Robert Willis
Project Director
MESA/Johns Hopkins University

Robert H. Willis received a B.S. in Chemistry from Lincoln University in 1969 and a M.S. in Urban Education from the State University of New York at Geneseo in 1970. He joined the Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory in 1980 and currently serves as the Affirmative Action Officer for the Laboratory. He is the President of the Maryland Association of Affirmative Action Officers and a National Board Member of the National Industry Liaison Group.

Presenters

Robert Willis
Project Director
MESA/Johns Hopkins University

Michael Aldaco
Executive Director, California MESA

Karan Watson, Ph.D.
Associate Dean, College of Engineering
Texas A&M University

