

CORPORATE LESSONS LEARNED ON ISSUES OF COLLEGE RELATIONS AND DIVERSITY

Moderator

Stephanie Malin
Program Manager
International Business Machines

Stephanie Malin is currently an IBM Program Manager and is responsible for establishing IBM's recruiting and relationship programs with key schools in the northeast. For five years, Stephanie was a technical manager in IBM and managed different areas within the I/S and telecommunications communities. She also has experience in human resources, education and training.

Stephanie was recently appointed to the WEPAN Board of Directors, is the IBM representative to SWE (Society of Women Engineers), serves on the board of directors for the Long Island Business and Professional Women's Association, and is a committee member of NACE (National Association of Colleges and Employers).

Recorder

Tony Marable
Director, Minority Engineering Program
Tennessee Technological University

Presenters

Harold Shields
Manager, Employment Strategies, Recruiting and Diversity
Aluminum Company of America

Lewis Shumaker
Manager, College Relations and Recruiting
Dupont

Sandra Graves
Staffing Consultant
Dupont

D.J. Smith-Brooks
College Relations Manager
The Boeing Company

