

FEMINISM, WOMEN'S STUDIES AND ENGINEERING: OPPORTUNITIES AND OBSTACLES

Moderator

Banu Subramaniam, Ph.D.
Research Assistant Professor, Women in Science Program
University of Arizona

Banu Subramaniam is an Assistant Research Professor at the Southwest Institute for Research on Women and the Departments of Women's Studies and Ecology and Evolutionary Biology. She is currently an Andrew W. Mellon fellow at the Humanities Consortium at UCLA.

Panelists

Angela Ginorio, Ph.D.
Director, Northwest Center for Research on Women
University of Washington

Devamoni Naidoo, Ph.D.
School of Oceanography
University of Washington

Shirley Yee, Ph.D.
Chair, Women Studies
University of Washington

CREATING A GLOBAL ENGINEERING COMMUNITY THROUGH PARTNERSHIPS

1998 WEPA National Conference