

INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES: INDIA, ROMANIA AND THE UNITED KINGDOM

Moderator

Jill S. Teitjen, P.E.
Director, Women in Engineering Program
University of Colorado

Jill S. Tietjen, P.E., joined the University of Colorado-Boulder as the Director of the Women in Engineering Program in July 1997 after 21 years in industry, the last 14 spent as a consulting engineer performing generation and transmission planning work for the electric utility industry. Ms. Tietjen, a Fellow Life Member of the Society of Women Engineers, served as its National President 1991-1992. She serves on numerous non-profit boards, was appointed to the Colorado State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers and Professional Land Surveyors in 1996, and is an outside director for the Georgia Transmission Corporation of Tucker, Georgia.

Speakers

Mona Dahms, Ph.D.
Associate Professor, Department of Communications Technology
Aalborg University, Denmark

Marie-Noëlle Barton
Manager, WISE Campaign
Engineering Council, United Kingdom

Additional Paper Author

Prof. Masooda Yasin
Director, Technical Education, J&K State
Boys Polytechnic Campus, India

CREATING A GLOBAL ENGINEERING COMMUNITY THROUGH PARTNERSHIPS

1998 WEPA National Conference