

NEWCOMERS

Moderator

Betty Preece

Engineering Education Consultant

Betty Preece is a consultant on science and engineering education and also the Accessibility Coordinator for 45 Civil Engineering Squadron. She currently is Project Director for the SWE grant: "SWE TECH-ABILITIES – High Tech Vocations for Young Women with Disabilities." Among her other activities are missile test range engineer, secondary and university teaching, Physics Teaching Resource Agent, mentor, tutor, science text contributor, teacher trainer, member of the "SWE Magazine" Editorial Board. She has a B.S. in Electrical Engineering and MS in Science Education. Betty travels worldwide helping students of all ages discover science is fun.

Presenters

Cinda-Sue Davis

Director, Women in Science and Engineering Programs
University of Michigan

Judy "J.J." Jackson

Special Advisor to the Provost on Faculty Diversity
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

MOVING BEYOND INDIVIDUAL PROGRAMS TO SYSTEMIC CHANGE

1999 WEPAN National Conference