

RESEARCH AND EVALUATION: KEYS TO SUCCESS

MODERATOR

Brenda G. Hart earned her B.A. in French language and literature from Boston University and her M.Ed in Student Personnel Services – College Counseling from the University of Louisville. She served as Assistant Director in the Office of Cooperative Education and Placement for four years and as Director of the Academic Advising Office at the University's Speed Scientific School for 14 years. She currently serves as Director of Minority and Women in Engineering Programs at the University of Louisville.

Hart's areas of expertise include special programming for under-represented students as well as orientation classes for first year students. She has published numerous articles on these subjects and has give presentations at many regional and national conferences.

SECOND STAGE TRANSFORMATION: CREATING A NEW VISION IN THE 21ST CENTURY

2000 WEPAN National Conference