The Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine

INDEX
Volume 48
1965

Published quarterly by
THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA
4338 Bigelow Boulevard, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
A

A. Cook & Sons, of P't. Mill, Allegheny, lumber dealers, 50
Abbott, John Charles, m. Jane Belfour, 118
Abbott, W. L., corporator of Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
Academy of Science and Art, Pgh. (1890), 60
Acorn, Ohio River ship (1896), 48
Adams, James Truslow, historian, 270
Adams, Mrs. Marcellin C., compiler of history of Church of the Ascension, article printed in The Ascension Bulletin (1949), 2n
Adams and Yernon, Clarion County iron furnace owners, 191
Additions to Collections, 410-418, including Library, Genealogy, Archives and Museum and Glass. Not indexed
Address to the President (1862), moderate compromise, 25
Ague, prevalent in Ohio Valley lowlands (1826), 110
Aiken landholdings in Shadyside district of Pittsburgh, 2
Airbrakes, George Westinghouse inventor, 61-62
Albert, George Dallas, History of the County of Westmoreland, Frontier Ports, 11, 175, 182
Albright, Rebecca Gifford, "The Civil War Career of Andrew Gregg Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania," 19-42, 151-173
Alden, Frank E., Pittsburgh architect, supervised construction of Church of the Ascension; Wood's plan carried out, 9
Alden, John, American Revolution, 269, 269n
Alden and Harlow, Pittsburgh architectural firm (1896), 9
Alexander Hutchinson and Company, builders (1895) of Mercer County iron furnace, 291
Allegheny Cemetery, William Croghan monument, 136
Allegheny County heavy railroad bond indebtedness, 74; two iron furnaces (Clinton and Shadyside), described, 81-82
Allegheny County Court House and Jail, Richardson architecture, 10
Allegheny County Law Library, 142
Allegheny County Light Company (c.1880), 62
Allegheny Furnace, Armstrong County, described, 82, 93
Allegheny Furnace, Blair County, 93
Allegheny Market House (c.1849), 68
Allegheny Observatory (1867), sought by Western University of Pennsylvania, 59; time certification (1869f.), 60-61
Allen, Col. Edward Jay, poem "The Veteran" (1866), 337
Allen, John W., Legends and Lore of Southern Illinois (Carbondale, Ill., 1864), short rev. by J.W.F., 107-108
Alliance, first W. Pa. iron furnace (1790) on Jacobs Creek, Fayette County, 78; 271, 272; photos, opp. 276
Allison, Robert, partner (1811) in Allegheny Furnace, Blair County, 93
Alltoona, Blair County, 95
Alltoona Conference of Loyal Governors (Sept., 1862), 19
Aluminum, production began (1888), 62
Amberston, William, Shadyside Furnace, Pgh., partner (1793), 82
American Architect and Building News, Pittsburgh data, 8n
American Continental Army, George Washington, the Commander (1775), 251
American Furnace, Armstrong County (1846), 82
American Institute of Architects, J. D. Van Trump, associate honorary member of Philadelphia Chapter, 221n
Amity, schooner (193 tons), at Marietta, Ohio (1803), 43
Anderson, Col. James, private library used by Andrew Carnegie (c.1850), 60
Anderson, John, Venango County ironmaster (1824), 365
Anderson Furnace (Phipps Furnace), Venango County (1824), 365
Andrew, Gov. John A., of Mass., hesitates on petition of 1862, 21; radical, 22, 24; favors state control recruitment (1861), 154
Anshutz, George, Shadyside Furnace (1793), 82; manager of Westmoreland Furnace (c.1796), 383
Antietam, Battle of, narrow victory, not followed up by McClellan, 22
Apollo, Pa., Roaring Run iron ore (1793f.), 82; iron furnace area, 84
Apostles and Disciples, on tapestry in Church of the Ascension, 14
Appomattox: The Last Campaign, by Burleigh Cushing Rodick (New York, 1965), rev., 403-404
Apprentice Library, Pgh. (c.1850), 60
Aqueduct, over the Allegheny (1832), 49
Arch Spring, Pa., stone house of ironmaster, Henry Spang, 97
Architecture, Gothic Revival example, 1; Greek Revival, Croghan house, Pgh., 143, 308
Armco Iron, Middletown, O., 62
Armstrong, W. H., supports Curtin (1863), 36
Armstrong & Co., lumber dealers (1884), 53
Armstrong County, fifteen iron furnaces described, 82-89
Army of the Potomac (1861), 155; (1864), 163
Artemisia, ruler of ancient Halicarnassus, 225; another Artemisia built famous tomb, 226
Artis, John, aged 72, points out old iron furnace site, 275
Ascension Academy (1947); part moved to Calvary Church (1951); five grades moved to Church of the Redeemer, became St. Edmund's Academy, 6
The Ascension Bulletin, of the Church of the Ascension, 2n

Ashland Furnace, Cambria County (1847), 188

Aspinwall, Mrs. Anna, benevolence to hospital (1848), 134

Association of Teachers, Pgh. (1836), 57

Assumpink River (1776), 266

"The Astonishing Croghans," by Margaret Pearson Bothwell, 119-144

Astor, John Jacob, at Philadelphia convention (Sept., 1866), 333

Astronomy, Allegheny Observatory, est. (1859), telescope, incorporated by Pa. Legislature, 61

Atterbury, Grosvenor, Pgh. architect, used by Frick, 232

Avery, Charles, Pgh. philanthropist, essay by Stanton Belfour, 117

---

Bailie, Samuel, Pgh. (1826), store manager of Alexander Laughlin, 111

Bailie, William, Pgh. (1826), manager of Laughlin store, 111

Bailie family, near Squirrel Hill (1826), 109, 111

Baker, Mr., of Economy, offers for sale (1847) mineral collection, 59

Baker, Elias, Blair County ironmaster (1836), 93

Baker, Elias, Indiana County iron furnace owner (1848), 282

Baker Furnace, Indiana County, 189; Indiana County Iron Works (1837), 282

Bakewell, Thomas, glass works (1808), 356

Bald Eagle Creek, Blair County iron furnace area, 93

Bald Eagle Furnace, Blair County (1830), 93

Baldwin, Henry, Westmoreland County iron furnace owner (1810), 376

Baldwin, Leland S., 45, 69, 72

Baldwin Furnace, Westmoreland County (1810), 376, 380

Baldwin, Robinson, McNickle and Beltzhoover, furnace builders (c.1818), 83

B & O railroad, address (1852) by President Swann, 74-75

Baltimore, Md. (1826), port of entry for Pgh., 109, 113; U. S. Congress refuge (1776), 259

Bancroft, George, historian, adulation of Washington, 251, 253, 256, 257, 260, 269

Bank of Pittsburgh (1896), 229; photo, opp. 229

Banks, Gen. Nathaniel, at Pgh. convention (1866), 335

Barton, Clara, Civil War nurse, 113

Basse, Dr. Detmar, ironmaster (1814), 90

Bassenheim Furnace, Beaver County, illustration, description, 90

Batchelor, Ohio River boat (1884), 53

Battle of Long Island (1776), 252

Battle of the Monongahela (1755), 249-250

Baynton, Wharton and Morgan, famous Phila. mercantile firm, 319

Bear, Henry, ironmaster in Clarion County (1828f.), 192

Bear Creek Furnace, Armstrong County, described, 83-84, 185

Beatty, Sarah, affidavit, 181

Beaver Academy, Beaver, Pa. (1835), 57

Beaver and Lake Erie Canal, 72

Beaver Canal, Beaver County, 90

Beaver County, three iron furnaces, 90-91

Beaver Creek, Clarion County, 195

Beaver Falls Furnace (Brighton Furnace), 90

Beaver Furnace, Clarion County (1835), 191

Beaver River, "Middle Falls," 90, 91

Bedford County, four iron furnaces, described, 91-93

Beelen, Anthony, Shadyside Furnace, Pgh. partner (1793), 82

Belfour, C. Stanton, elected President of the Historical Society for 1965, 117-118; photograph as frontispiece, opp. 117; 213, 405, 407-409

Belfour, Jane (Mrs. John Charles Abbott), 118

Belfour, Joan, Pgh., 118

Bell, James Martin, correspondent (1862), 171

Bell, Martin, and Bell, Edward, Blair County owners of iron furnace (1832f.), 95

Bell, Sam, Venango County owner of iron furnaces, 368, 370

Bell, Whitfield J., Jr., John Morgan, Continental Doctor (Phila., 1965), rev., 299-301

Bell, William, son of Sam, takes over iron furnace (1838), 368, 370

Bellefield district, Pittsburgh, large landholding of Neville B. Craig, 2

Bellefonte, Pa., home of Curtin and other politicians, 34

Bellows, in iron making, 80

Beltzhoover, Daniel, buys Bassenheim Furnace (1818), 90

Beninger, John, Westmoreland County iron furnace builder (1810), 378

Benney, Philip, memorial window (1918), war victim, 17

Bennington Furnace, Blair County, 93-94, 96

Bens Creek Water Company, Cambria County, 189

Beringer, Aimee, m. Alexander Murdoch, 114

Berry, Gov. Nathaniel, of New Hampshire, attends war conference (Sept., 1862), 22

Bessemer Railroad, at Greenville, Pa., 289

Bethlehem Mine Corporation, Cambria County, 383
Bezaleel Wells, Steubenville-built steamer (c.1820), 46
Bibliographical data, on architects and scholars on Halicarnassus, 227; and footnotes, 227; not herein indexed
Bibliography of works on iron furnaces in W. Pa., fifty-five items, 384-385
Biddle Furnace (Rock Furnace), Armstrong County (1825), 84
Big Bend Furnace, Mercer County (1846), 287-288
Big Sandy Creek, Venango County iron furnace area, 366, 367
Bigelow, Edward M., Director of Public Works (1888), 70
Bindley, Edwin, vestryman, corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
Bingham, W. S., ironmaster, Butler County (1835), 187
Black and Maxwell, Clarion County ironmasters (1844), 201
Black Fox Furnace, Clarion County (1844), 191
Black Lick Creek, Indiana County iron furnace area, 283
Black Lick Furnace, Indiana County (c.1845), 282-283
Blaine, James G. (1866), 331
Blair, Gov. Austin, of Michigan, at Cleveland Conference (1861), 20
Blair, Francis P., correspondent (1862) of John Andrew, 21, 21n
Blair, Montgomery, conservative Republican (1866), 333
Blair Academy, Blairstown, N. J., 117
Blair County, seventeen iron furnaces, 91, 93-100
Blair County Historical Society, old furnace owner, 97
Blair Furnace, Blair County (1830f.), 94-95
Blairsville, Pa. (1826), little town, six years old, 110-111
Blanche Furnace, Mercer County (1846), 288
Bloomfield, Bedford County, site of rebuilt iron furnace (1847), 91
Bloomfield Furnace, Bedford County, three sites, twice rebuilt, 91, 98
Blythe, David G., painter, 56
Board of Consulting Physicians (1833), report to Sanitary Board, 64
Boats, many types built and used in or near Pittsburgh, 43; some sold abroad or at coastal ports, 44; kept from British along the Delaware (1776), 257; Durham boats, 262
Bomberger, Jacob B. (1858), 167
Bonner, Andrew, iron furnace builder, 86; Venango County iron furnace owner (1843), 275
Bonner, Archibald, owner of Venango County iron furnace, 375
Bonner, James E., iron furnace (1845), 85, 86
Bonner, Joseph, owner of Victory Furnace, 86, 375
Book Notes, four items, by J.W.F., 106-108
Boston, Mass., evacuated by British (St. Patrick's Day, 1776), 251
Botanical Society of W. Pa., Pgh., est. (1886), 60
Bothwell, Margaret Pearson, "The Astonishing Croghans," 119-144
Boucher, John N., History of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, 175-181, 377
Bouquet, Col. Henry (1764), 318
Boutwell, George S., Secretary of the Treasury (1869), 348
Boyd, George and James, Butler County ironmasters (1844), 186
Boyce, Rawl and Company, owners of Mercer County iron furnace, 291
Brackenridge, Henry Marie, author, Views of Louisiana; Together with a Journal of a Voyage up the Missouri River, in 1811, and Recollections of Persons and Places in the West (1834), 54
Brackenridge, Hugh Henry, Modern Chivalry (1792-1813), 54; lawyer (1786), 141n
Bradbury, John, botanist, on Pittsburgh steamer at Natchez (Jan. 5, 1812), Travels, 44
Braddock, Gen. Edward, carried from battlefield, by George Croghan and George Washington, 122; "ill-starred" campaign, 249-250
Braddock's grave, grove of trees donated by John Murdoch, Jr., 114
Bradford, Gov. Augustus, of Maryland, moderate Republican (1862), 24
Brady's Bend Furnaces (Great Western Iron Works), four furnaces, forges and rolling mills (1840f.), 84-85
Breakneck Creek, Fayette County iron furnace area (1818), 273
Breakneck Furnace, Fayette County (1818), 273
Breeden, Robert, Butler County ironmaster (1848?), 187
Brewer, Charles, Pgh. philanthropist, essay by Stanton Belfour, 117
Brickles: Bridge Point Bridge (covered, 1859), Pgh. & W. Va. Railroad Bridge, 81; covered bridge, 81; covered bridge at New Alexandria, Pa. (1832), later replaced, 224
Briggs, C. C., vestryman, Church of the Ascension (1887), 4
Brisbin, James W., Bellefonte, Pa., 173
Britain, limited iron production, importation from Spain, Sweden and Russia, 77
British Molasses and Stamp Acts, 320
British saints, dedicatory clerestory windows in Church of the Ascension, to St. Alban, St. Hilda, St. Dunstan, St. George, St. David, St. Elfreda, St. Thomas Becket, and St. Edward the Confessor, not separately indexed here, 18
Broodhead, Col. Daniel, military rule at Pgh. (1779), 121n
Broch, Wayne G., Jr., The Molly Maguires
Brookln Heights, Battle (1776) of Long Island, 252
Brooks, Gen. William T. H., 166
Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Church of the Ascension, 18
Brown, John, his body cheered, Pgh. (1866), 338
Brown, Rasselas, Warren County judge (1860), 237
Brown, Robert E., Kittanning, Pa., iron-master, 87
Brown, Rev. Mr. Wyatt, pastor of Church of the Ascension (1915-1920), 6
Brown and Mosgrove, Kittanning, Pa., Pine Furnace (1845), 89
Brown, Phillips and Company, iron furnace owners (1850), 193
Brownfield, Basil, Fayette County iron furnace owner (1857), 277
Brownlee, Jane, daughter of Joseph, Indian captive, survived to old age, 182
Brownlee, John, Am. Rev. soldier, brother of Lt. Joseph, 179, 179m
Brownlee, Joseph, "1. Lieut. 13 Pa. Regt.," gravestone inscription, 175; six hundred acre farm, 190; tombstone photo, opp. 180
Brownlee, Mrs. Joseph, caught in raid by Indians (1782), 177; biog. sketch, 181
Brown's Island, in Ohio River, 48, 50
Bruce, Robert, principal of Western University of Pennsylvania (1825), proposes instruction in Spanish, 58
Bruin Furnace (Dudley Furnace), Butler County, 185
Bruin Lumber Company, Bruin, Butler County, 185
Bryson, Andrew, Fayette County (1826), 110
Bryson, Robert, miller at Washington, Pa. (1826), "a dollar a day" wage, 110
Buchanan, Mrs. Edwin Bayler, commemorative gift in memory of David Glick, 115
Buchanan, Pres. James, a purchaser of Clarion County iron furnace (1843), 196
Buchanan Furnace, Clarion County, photo, opp. 189; history, 191-192
Buckingham, Gov. W. A., of Connecticut, attends war conference (Sept., 1862), 21
Bucktai1 Regiment, Pa., Civil War, 235
Budlong, Rev. Dr. Frederick G., rector of Church of the Ascension (1920-1925), 6
Budrun, modern city, on site of old Hali-carnassus, once an island, 225
Buena Vista Furnace, Indiana County (1847), 283
Buffalo Creek, Armstrong County, iron furnace district, 85
Buffalo Furnaces, Armstrong County (c.1839), first of heat blast type, 85; abandoned (1864), 85
Bulletin, Phila., 173
Bullion Furnace, Venango County (1840), 365-366
Burlington, N. J. (1776), 261
Burne-Jones, Sir Edward, artist, 16
Burnham, D. H., architect, designer of H. C. Frick Building, Pgh. (1901), 230
Burnside, Gen. Ambrose E., movement rained out (1863), 246
Burroughs, N. H., ironmaster of Blair County, 94
Butler, Gen. Benjamin, at Pgh. convention (1866), 335; Resolutions chairman, 338-340
Butler, J. S., Mercer County iron furnace owner (1838), 289
Butler County, seven iron furnaces, 185-188
Butterfield, William, Gothic Revival English architect, 8
Buttermilk Falls, river landing place, 202
Byram, H. H., corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
Bu11 customize old iron furnace (1869-1873), 383
C Cambria Furnaces, Cambria County, four furnaces (Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4), built (1854, 1856, 1857), 189-190
Cambria Iron Company, owner of iron furnaces (c.1846), 189
Cambria Rolling Mills, 190
Cambridge, Mass. (July 2, 1775), George Washington arrives, 142
Cameron, Simon (1863), 33, 36, 151, 152; factionalism, 166, 167, 172
Camp Aliquippa (Boy Scout), Westmoreland County, 380
Camp Curtin, near Harrisburg (1861), 155
Camp Sequanota, Lutheran Church Camp, Somerset County, 293
Campbell, Robert, Kinzua, Pa., farmer, 245
Campbell, Rev. Dr. Wilburn C., rector, Church of the Ascension (1946-1950), Bishop Coadjutor of West Virginia (1950), 18
Canal rivalry, about routes, 72
Canoe Creek and Canoe Ripple, on Clarion River, 194, 201
Canoe Furnace, Blair County, the correct name of Sarah Furnace, 99
Canon, Stewart and Moore, iron furnace owners, Blair County (1809), 97
Canonsburg Academy, Washington County, 57
Carnahan, Robert B., Sr., attorney for Schenley estate, negotiates for Schenley Park (1888), 70
Carnahan, Robert Brown, rust-resisting metallurgy, Armco Iron Process, 62
Carnegie, Andrew (c.1850), used library of Col. James Anderson, 60, 230, 231, 232
Carnegie, Lucy C., wife of Thomas M., 230
Carnegie, Thomas M., industrialist, brother of Andrew, memorial skyscraper, 230, photo, opp. 228
Carnegie Building (1893-95), first Pgh. steel frame skyscraper, photo, opp. 228, 229; memorial to Thomas M. Carnegie, 230
Carnegie Free Library of Allegheny, 8, 63
Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pgh., Stanton Belfour an alumnus, 117; School of Architecture, 308
Carnegie libraries: Allegheny (1887), Pittsburgh (1891), drawings submitted by Wood, 8
Casey, Joseph, Pa. politician (1859), 167-168
Cashdollar, Charles D., The Pittsburgh Soldiers and Sailors' Convention, September 25-26, 1866," 331-343
Castle Rock Furnaces (Lytle Furnace) (Sandy Furnace), Venango County (1836-1860), 366-369; photo, opp. 372
Casualties, at Fort Washington (1776), 253; at Trenton, 263
Catfish Furnace, Clarion County (1846-1856), on Catfish Creek, 192, 200
Cathedral of Learning, Univ. of Pgh., 143-144
Cavan, Alexander, Westmoreland County iron furnace owner, 377
Centennial Exposition (1776), names ten outstanding women of Pa., 113
Center Furnace (Dunbar Furnace), Fayette County (1815), 273
Central District and Printing Telegraph Company, Pgh. (1878), introduces telephones, 61
Chalfant, Ella, A Goodly Heritage, cited, 43, 56, 67
Chalfant, William L., vestryman, Church of the Ascension (1887), 4
Chambersburg, Pa., Confederate raid (October, 1862), 161; raid (1864), 163
Chapin, William O., messenger (1869), 349, 351
Charette, Pgh. journal of architecture, 321
Charles J. Connick Associates, Boston, stained glass work (1918), 17
Charleston, S. C. (1780), 123
Charlestown (Wellsville) (c.1816), 45
Chase, George W., army religious class man (1863), 246
Chase, Salmon P., Secretary of the Treasury (1862), 24; abolitionist, in Pgh. (1848), 68, 153
Chatham Village, Pgh., 118
Chemical and Physiological Society (Pgh., 1813), 55-56
Chicago and Erie Stove Company, Erie, Pa. (1900), 203
Child labor, "industrial small help," 355
Chimney Rock Furnace, Blair County (1836), 95
Chislett, J., "Professor of Music and Painting," Pgh. (1832), 56
Cholera, in Pgh. (c.1833), 64; (c.1848), 128
"Cholera Day," observed (1848), by St. Michael's Church, 64-65
Christ (Jesus), in tapestry, Church of the Ascension, 14
Christ Church (1892), Bloomfield, N. J., Gothic central lantern, W. H. Wood, architect, 10
Christian Soldier, small army religious class (1863), 246
Christmas, along the Delaware (1776), 262, 268
Christopher Lobinger and Brothers, builders (1794) of Westmoreland County iron furnace, 383
Church, Carothers and Crawford, Butler County ironmaster firm, 186
Church of the Ascension, 1-18 passim
Church congregations, Presbyterian, Unitarian, Baptist, "Christian" and African Methodist Episcopal, Pittsburgh (1810-1835), 55
Church News (Episcopal) (1888), 4
Chute, Charles Lionel, muckraker, 357
Cietta, of the Reveillon Studio, Paris, designer of wall paper pattern (c.1786), 149
Cincinnati, feared as rival of Pittsburgh, 71, 73, 74
Cincinnati American (1830), critic of rival Pittsburgh, 73
Cist, Charles, Cincinnati author (1846), 74
Civil Rights Bill (1866), 332
Civil War, called Rebellion, 158; 159; called War Between the States, 165, 280
Civil War, Official Records, Crump collection, 308
Clapp, Ralph, Venango County iron furnace builder (1854-1855), 371
Clarion County, twenty-eight furnaces, 191-202
Clarion Furnace, Clarion County (1828-1852), 192
Clark, Lucy, sister of George Rogers Clark, m. William Croghan, Sr., eight children, 126
Clarke, Marietta, presents to HSWP a letter of 1865, 310
Clarkson, R. B., Tumult on the Mountains (1964), rev., 210-211
Classes, their importance, 233
Clay, Henry, friend of ironmasters, 289
Clay Furnace, Mercer County (1845), 288
Clearfield County, one iron furnace (1817), 202
Cleveland (Ohio) Conference of Union Governors (May, 1861), 19
Clifford, J., builder of Westmoreland County iron furnace (1854), 381
Clinton, Gen. Henry (1776), 259
Clinton Furnace, Allegheny County (1859), 81-82
Clinton Furnace, Clarion County (1841f.), 192
Clover Creek, Blair County, Rebecca Furnace (1817), 98
Clymer, Hiester, Democrat gubernatorial candidate (1866), 336
Coal, used in iron furnaces passim; river shipments, 47, 48, 49, 53; underground fires in Squirrel Hill, 114
Cobb, Myron C., killed at Antietam (1862), 243
Cochrane, Gen. James, of N. Y., at Pgh. convention (1866) damns the South, 338
Cocken, William Y., architect, partner of Benno Janssen (1923), 231
Coke, replaces charcoal in iron furnaces, 83, 84, 86, 89, 90, 93, 95, 199, 279, 287, 288, 291, 380
Colebrookdale Furnace, Berks County (1720), first Pa. iron furnace, 78
Coleman, Alex., lumber agent (1884), 53-54
Collins, Cordello, Warren County, Bucktail Regiment private, 234f.; (d.1863), 248
Collins, Dolly (Mrs. John Collins), Kinzua, Pa., eight children, 236f.
Collins, John, Kinzua, Pa., blacksmith (d.1863), 236, 248
Colwell, John A., Kittanning, Pa., ironmaster (1845), 86
Comet, visible at Pgh. (Oct. 8, 1882), 61
Committee of Public Safety, Pgh. (1861), 69
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, donates (1848) geological specimens to Western University of Pennsylvania, 59
Conemaugh Furnace (Hodges Furnace), Cambria County (1857), 383
Conemaugh Furnace, Westmoreland County, 377
Confederates, under Lee, Jackson and Long-street, threaten Maryland and Pennsylvania (1862), 21, 160
Congressional Committee on Reconstruction, proposed (1865), 332
Connellsville, Fayette County iron furnace area, 273, 275, 281
Connolly, Dr. John, Pgh. (1774), supports land claim of George Croghan, 139
Connoquenessing Creek, iron furnace area, 91
Conrad, Joseph A., Cambria County ironmaster (1847), 188
Conscription, military, Pa. (1862), U. S. (1863), 154, 157
Continental Army (2,000 men, 1776), 255
Continental Congress, 252, 255, 259, 260, 265, 270
Cook, J. W., lumber dealer (1884), 51n
Coolsprings Furnace, Fayette County (c.1820), 273
Corbett, G. W., Clarion County ironmaster (1849), 193
Corbin, Abel Rathbone, New York realtor and Wall Street operator (1869), m. sister of U. S. Grant, 347
Cornwallis, Lord Charles, Yorktown surrender, 176; 254, 261, 266, 267, 269
Correspondence, contemporary, about old iron furnaces of W. Pa., eleven items, 385-386
The Correspondence of John Badollet and Albert Gallatin, 1804-1836, ed. by Gayle Thornbrough (Indianapolis, 1963), rev., 208
Corsica Furnace (Mt. Pleasant Furnace), Clarion County (1849), 193
Cotton mills, Pgh., closed by winter (1856), 50; riot (1848), 68
Cotton textiles, imported (until 1824), 112
Couch, Gen. Darius, 166; Mass. conservative (1866), 333
Coulter, Judge Richard, Westmoreland County newspaper article (1836), 176
County Roscommon, Ireland, supposed native place of Croghans, 119
Court of Common Pleas, Allegheny County (1888), charters Church of the Ascension, 4
Covode, George, son of John, 162
Covode, John, ally of Simon Cameron (1863), 33, 39, 162, 173
Cowen, Edgar, supports Curtin (1863), 36; Pa. conservative (1866), 333
Cowanshannock Creek, Armstrong County, 85, 86, 88
Cowanshannock Furnace (Bonner Furnace), Armstrong County, 85-86
Cox, Gov. Jacob, 0., convention chairman, Pgh. (1866), 339
Cox, John B., notes on William Croghan, Jr., 135n
Coxie, Michel (1499-1592), tapestry artist, 14
Craig, Maj. Isaac, Commandant at Pittsburgh (1792), 271-272; glass industrialist (1797), 356
Craig, Neville B., land holding in old Belle Field or Bellefield district of Pittsburgh, 2, 72.

Crall, F. Frank, author of valuable article, 73

Cram, Ralph Adams (1863-1942), American Gothicist architect, 8, consulted on re-decoration of the Church of the Ascension (1923), 11; 15

Cram, Wentworth and Goodhue, architectural firm (1896), 9

Cramer, Zadok, his first Navigator (1801), 1811 edition quoted, 44-45, 48, 54, 55, 63, 71

Cramer, Spear and Eichbaum, publishers, Pgh. (1814), 54

Crane, George, Cambria County unsuccessful ironmaster, 189

Crary, William and Frederick, Venango County iron furnace operators (1825-1835), 270

Crawford, A. L., Lawrence County iron furnace owner, 284

Crawford, A. M., of Pittsburgh, rare book owner, 59

Crawford, George, Venango County iron furnace owner, 375

Crawford, Stanton C., and Brown, Mary C., "Pittsburgh as Viewed from Down River," Part II, 43-76

Crawford, Sue, schoolgirl, writes on diseases, 65

Crawford, Col. William, captured, contemporary report, 126; land agent of George Washington (1773), 139

Creighton, John W. R., treasurer, HSWP, report on finances (1864), 216-218

Croghan, George (1710-1782), 119, 136, 137, 325

Croghan, Maj. George, son of William Croghan, Sr., 126n, 127; (d.1849), 136

Croghan, Dr. John, son of William Croghan, Sr., 126, 126n; (d.1849); bought Locust Grove, Ky. (1834), 148

Croghan, Lucy Clark, sister of George Rogers Clark, m. William Croghan, Sr., 145

Croghan, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of William Croghan, Jr., 130, 131

Croghan, Mary O'Hara, m. William Croghan, Jr., portrait, opp. 132

Croghan, Nicholas, Dublin, Ireland, supposed father of William Croghan, Sr. (1752-1822), 123

Croghan, Nicholas, son of William Croghan, Sr., and probably grandson of Nicholas Croghan of Ireland, 146n

Croghan, Susannah, m. Augustine Prevost, 121, 128; mother of Sir George, 128

Croghan, William, Sr. (1752-1822), alleged son of George Croghan, 122, 123, 125n; pays (1774) George Croghan for deed to over six thousand acres of land on Raccoon Creek, 124, 124n; captain of Eighth Virginia Regiment (c.1775), 124-125

Croghan, William, Jr. (d.1850), son of William Croghan, Sr., and Lucy Clark Croghan, 126, 129; settled in Pgh., m. Mary Carson; d. Hara, 129; photo, opp. 133; 136, 143f., 150

Croghan, William III (1823-1827), died young, 130

"The Astonishing Croghans," by Margaret Pearson Bothwell, 119-144

Croghansville, old name for later Lawrenceville, 130

Cross, Mrs. Jane Weakley, 368

Cross, Sam, Venango County iron furnace owner (1836), 374

Cross, William, iron furnace builder, Forest County (1853), 281; Venango County (1836), 366, 368, 373, 374

Dr. Cross's Grove, Pgh. 17th Ward, picnic (1869), 349

Cross Cut Canal, connected the Beaver with Lake Erie, 72

Crump, Edward, "In Remembrance," 308

Crump and Company, Pgh. architectural firm (1950), 12

Cuba (1863), Havana visited by Gov. Andrew Gregg Curtin, 170

Cumings, Samuel, author, Western Pilot (1845 ed.), 45

Cummings, Hubertis M., Scots Breed and Susquehanna (Pgh., 1964), rev., 205-207

Cummings, Dr. S. P., Westmoreland County iron furnace owner (1853), 376

Cunningham, Oliver, graduate of Western University of Pennsylvania (1825), 57

Curll, Kribbs and Company, Clarion County iron furnace owners (1846), 194

Curriculum offerings, Western University of Pennsylvania (1832), 58

Curtin, Gov. Andrew, "Soldiers' Friend," 156; factionalism (1861), 166; (1866), 333

Curtin, Mrs. Kate, wife of Andrew, 33

Curtin manuscripts, believed burned (c.1894), 173

"The Civil War Career of Andrew Gregg Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania," by Rebecca Gifford Albright, 19-42; 151-173

Custer and Little, managers of Somerset County iron furnace, 293

Cyphert, Solomon, Clarion County ironmaster (1849), 193

Daily Tribune, Greensburg, Pa. (1954), reports erection of Brownlee tombstone, 183

Dale, Samuel F., buys (1834) Venango County iron furnace, 370

D. H. Burnham and Company, architectural firm (1896), 9

Dabo, Leon (1868-1960), painter, 13, 14
Darlington Road, Pgh., site of original John Murdoch, Sr., house (razed c.1920), 113
Darughertys Mills, Butler County site of iron furnace, 187

Davies, Col. William, "Commissioner of War," Richmond, Va. (1782), 125, 125w

Davis, Pres. Jefferson, ridiculed (1865), 313; his hanging advocated at Pgh. convention (1866), 339

Davis, Stanton, historian, quoted, 24, 31, 32

Davis, William, Venango County iron furnace manager, 368

Day, Sherman, Historical Collections . . ., 175, 176

Deadman's ripple, on Ohio River, 48-49

Declaration of Independence, its renunciation threatened by Maryland (1776), 256

Deer Creek, Clarion County, 191, 193

Deer Creek Furnace, Clarion County (1844), 193

Democratic, conservative German newspaper (Pgh., 1866), 336

Demorest, Rose, cholera data (1854), 65, 68, 69

Demotte, art dealer, 16

Dennison, Gov. William, of Ohio, at Cleveland Conference (1861), 20

Denniston, A. H., corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4

Denniston, J. T., corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4

Denny, Harmar (1794-1852), 131, 132, 133, 134, 136

Dent, Frederick, Missouri, m. Ellen Wrenshall, father of Julia, 345

Dent, Julia, m. Lt. Ulysses S. Grant, 345

DeWitt Clinton, steamer (1825), 46

Dickey, Mrs. Alfred C., nee Jane Robb Murdoch, 113

Dickinson, John, despair (1776), 258

Diller, Roland, Blair County ironmaster (1836), 93

Dinwiddie, Gov. Robert (1753), 249

Diocesan Journal, Journal of the Annual Convention, Protestant Episcopal, 3-4

Diphtheria, pandemic (1856-1860), epidemic (1875-1886), 66

Doyle, John B., vestryman, Church of the Ascension (1887), 4

Drew, Grace Ellen, letter to Etta Perkins (1865), 310-315

Dudley, L. Edwin, chairman of convention, Pgh. (1866), 337

Duff, President P., Duff's College (1864), text publisher, 59

Duff's Mercantile College (c.1861), claims nearly 6,000 students (1840-1860), 59

Duffy, John, "The Impact of Asiatic Cholera on Pittsburgh . . ." 64

Dumoutier, John Baptiste, of Philadelphia, tea and coffee service set, 150

Dunbar Creek, Fayette County site of Dunbar (later Center) Furnace (1815), 273, 277, 280

Dunbar Furnace, Fayette County, old Union Furnace replaced (1793), closed (1930), 280

Dunmore, Lord, Gov. of Va. (1775), 139, 141

Dupuy, R. Ernest and Trevor N., Compact History, 254n, 256n, 258n, 259n, 260n

Eagle Furnace, Clarion County (1846), 194

Eakin, Myrl, HSWP, office secretary, 213

East Liberty, Allegheny County (1826) steam mill, 110

Eastern Pennsylvania, ironmaster families, Rutters, Potts, Notts, Grubbs, Coleman's, Birds, Eges and others, 78

Eaton, James, Venango County iron furnace owner, 374

Edie, Jno. (1884), 53

Edmondstone, Capt. Charles, final British commandant at Fort Pitt (1772), 321-329

Education, a major industry of Oakland district of Pittsburgh, 1-18; Pittsburgh a center (1823), 55; Blairsville, Pa. (1826) teacher paid "200 dollars, board and washing," 111

Edwards, Very Reverend, rector, Church of the Ascension (1926-1946), 6

Egle, William H., biography of Andrew Gregg Curtin, 27, 27n

Eighteenth Regiment (British), hated by Indians (1772), 326

Eighteenth Pennsylvania Regiment, in Am. Rev., 177

Election of 1861, in Pennsylvania, 29

Eliza Furnace (Ritter Furnace), Cambria County (c.1846-1848), 190

Elizabeth, Queen, transplanted Scotch to Ireland, 112

Elizabeth Furnace, Blair County, illus., insert, 80-81; description, 95, 98

Elk Furnace (Soapfat Furnace), Clarion County (1842), 195

Ellis, Franklin, History of Fayette County, 277

Ellwood City, Pa., iron furnace area, 91, 285

Elmer, M. C., rev. of Clarkson's Tumult on the Mountain (1964), 210-211

Emancipation Proclamation, demanded by radicals (Sept., 1862), 21; preliminary pronouncement (Sept. 22, 1862), prepared in July, 22

Emmanuel Church (Episcopal), North Side of Pittsburgh, Richardson the architect (1885-1886), 7

Emory and Culbertson, Lawrence County iron industry firm, 284, 285
Emory, Culbertson and Brackenridge, Lawrence County iron furnace builders (1846), 284

English, Susan, daughter of John, and correspondent of Cordello Collins (1862), 243

Enterprise, steamer, upstream trip (1817), 44

Erie County, iron furnaces, 202-203

Erie Railroad (1868), control by Jay Gould, 346

Erie Benevolent Society, Pgh. (1823), 129

Erwin, Am. Rev. military officer, 181

Established Church (Episcopal), disliked by the Scotch-Irish in Ireland, 113

Estes, Count d', French naval commander, 271

Esther Furnace (Hope Furnace), Mercer County (1846), 288

Etna, Pa., named for iron furnace, 187

Etna Furnace, Blair County, house of Henry Spang, 79

Etna Furnace, Butler County, modest home of owner, 79

Etna Furnace, Fayette County (1815), 274

Etna Furnace, Lawrence County (1842), 284

Evans, Ed., Sr., buys and runs iron furnace in Venango County (1844-1853), 368

Evans, Evelyn F., commemorative gift in memory of Mrs. Douglas Stewart, 113

Everett, Bedford County, in iron furnace area, 92

Eyre, Wilson, architect (1896), 9

Florence Academy, Florence, Pa. (1834), 57

Florists, nurserymen, greenhouses, of Murdoch brothers, downtown, in Oakland and Squirrel Hill, 113

Foltz and Jordan, purchasers of Lawrence County iron furnace, 285

Footnotes to 1865 History, letter, 310-315

Forbes, Gen. John, campaign (1758), 250, 319

Forbes Field, Pgh., former site of greenhouses of Murdoch brothers, 113

Forest County, one old iron furnace, 281

Forest County Home, 281

Forest Furnace, Forest County (1853), 281

"Forks of the Ohio," 349

Forney, John, Republican owner of the Philadelphia Press, promotes Union Party (1862), 31, 33, 36

Fort Chartres, Ill., imperial outpost (1765f.), 319, 320; abandoned (1772), 321

Fort Detroit (1763), 318

Fort Duquesne (1755), 249, 250, 251, 319

Fort Lee, N. J. (1776), 252, 254

Fort Ligonier, reconstruction, visited on 1965 annual tour, 406

Fort Pitt, early alternative name for Pittsburgh, 250; (1772), 317-320 passim

Fort Stevenson, George Croghan hero of Sandusky (1813), 127, 136

Fort Washington, Jeffery's Hook, Manhattan Island (1776), 252, 253, 254, 255

Forts of Gen. Forbes, at Carlisle, Loudoun, Bedford, Ligonier and Pittsburgh (1758-1772), 319

Forty-Fourth Regiment, Col. Thomas Gage, at Braddock's defeat (1755), 321

Forward, G. Ross, Somerset County iron furnace owner, 294

Foster, Charlotte Susanna (1809-1829), a sister of Stephen, 131, 131n

Foster, Stephen Collins, Pgh. composer, 63; wrote songs in Cincinnati, 74; as boy in Croghansville, 130

Foster, William B., father of Stephen, 130

Fountain Furnace, Westmoreland County (c.1812), 378

Fourteenth Amendment (1866), 331, 332, 334

Foust, John, builder (1840) of Somerset...
County iron furnace, 293
Frame, Richard, reported iron production
(1892), 78
Frank Gilmore, Ohio River ship, 48
Franklin, Pa., iron furnace area, 366
Franklin Circulating Library, Pgh. (1835),
59
Franklin Furnace, Venango County (1825-1830), 367
"Franklin Iron Works," Fayette County forge (1801), 275
Franklin Repository (.1860), 168
Frankstown, Blair County village, old furnace site (1836), 95
Frankstown Furnace, Blair County (1836),
95
Free Methodist Church, once an old schoolhouse, Lawrence County, 286
Freedman's Bureau Bill (1866), 332
Freeman, manager of iron furnace at Freeman's Falls, Westmoreland County (1820),
380
Freeman, Douglas Southall, noted American historian, 249, 257, 265, 269
Freeman, James M., Clarion County, joint owner of iron furnace, 202
Freeman, Linton and Miller, furnace buildners (1815), 275
Fremont Furnace (McKinley Furnace),
Lawrence County (1848), 284
The French and British in the Old Northwest: A Bibliographic Guide to Archive and Manuscript Sources, by Henry Putney
Beers (Detroit, Mich., 1964), rev., 211, 212
French and Company, art dealers, 16
Frick, Henry Clay, skyscrapers near Court House, 228, opp. 228, 230
Frick Annex (1906), 231
Frick and Lawson, Clarion County ironmasters (1843), 202
Frick Building, Pgh. (1893-1895), photo,
opp. 228, 230
Friedel, Frank, writer on child labor, 355
Frost, A. E., corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
Frothingham, Thomas G., 259, 260
Furnaces, in Western Pennsylvania, 77-100,
185-203, 271-295, 365-368
Furniture, Josiah pieces, at Locust Grove, 150

G
Gage, Gen. Thomas, commander-in-chief
(1763-1774), 320-329 passim
Garrett, McGaw and Company, Mercer
County iron furnace owners (1852-1859),
290
Gates, George W., Christian Soldiers member (1863), 246
Gates, Gen. Horatio (in 1776), 260
Gaysport Furnace, Blair County, 95, 96
Gazette, Pittsburgh radical Republican newspaper (1866), 335
Geary, John W., radical Republican, Pennsylvania gubernatorial candidate (1866),
336
Geer, Nelson, wounded at Antietam (1862), died (1895), 243
Geisenheimer, iron furnace partner of Peter
Karthaup (1817), 202
Geist, Jacob and Dr. William, Venango
County iron furnace owners, 374
Geist, William, Venango County iron furnace owner (1841-1842), 369
Gen. Lafayette, steamer (1824), 46
Georges Creek, Fayette County iron furnace area (1792), 274
Georgetown, town on the Ohio River, 45
Gerehart and Reynolds, Somerset County iron furnace builders (.1807), 294
Germain, Lord George, British minister
(1776), 264
Gettysburg, Battle of, political effect, 37, 248
Gettysburg National Cemetery, initiated by
Gov. Curtin, 164
Gibbon, Gen. John, mocks President Johnson at Pgh. convention (1866), 338
Gibson, John, Fayette County ironmaster
(1815), 274, 277
Gibson, Joseph, Fayette County ironmaster
(1815), 274
Gibson, Nathaniel, Fayette County iron furnace and forge, 275
Gibson, Thomas, Fayette County ironmaster
(1815), 274
Glass, varieties, plate, window, pressed and blown, 358; production process, 359-360
Glass house construction: heat, diseases, dust, injuries, night work, 360-364
"The Glass House Boys, Child Labor Conditions in Pittsburgh's Glass Factories, 1890-
1917," by John William Larner, Jr., 355-
364
Glazier, Henry H., killed at Antietam (1862),
243
Glenn, J. L., librarian of circulating library
(1831), 59
Glick, David, trustee of HSWP, commemorative gift from Mrs. Edwin Bayler Buchanan, in memory of, 115
Glover, John, naval genius (1776), 262
Golden Triangle, downtown section of Pittsburgh, 228
Goodenow, John M., Steubenville lawyer
(1824), 55
Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. George B., donors of Gordon Chapel of Church of the Ascension,
15
Gothic Revival, mainly English, 8
Gothicists, High Church American architects,
8
Gould, Jay, gold corner episode (1869), 345
Graff, Bennett and Company, Allegheny
County ironmasters, Clinton Furnace, 81
Graham, Joseph and William, iron furnace in H
Hale, H. G., corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
Halicarnassus, Mausoleum of, famous wonder, permanently influential, 222, 225, 226
"Halicarnassus, Pittsburgh and New Alexandria: A Memorial Excursion," by James D. Van Trump, 221-234
Hall, Charles Martin, development of aluminum production, 62
Hall, Judge J. T., of Center County, purchaser of Westmoreland County iron furnace, 379
Hall, Orris, Warren, Pa., merchant (c.1863), 246
Halleck, Gen. Henry W., 160
Halls Run Furnace, Venango County, known as "Hughs and Crawford" furnace, "never blown in," 367
Hamburg Furnace, Mercer County (1864), 289
Hamilton, Lt. Gen. Henry, British commander at Vincennes, 146
Hamlin, Fletcher, Christian Soldier member (1863), 246
Hamlin, Sylvester C., Warren County soldier (1861), 238, 239
Hampton and Smith, Indiana County iron furnace builders, 283
Hampton Forge, Fayette County, 277
Hancock Courier, newspaper (1896), 48
Hanna, Mrs. Robert, in Indian raid (1782), 177
Hannah, Thomas, Pgh. architect, designed Keenan Bldg. (1907), 232
Hannah Furnace (Unity Furnace), Westmoreland County (1810), 378
Hannastown, Pa. (1782), Indian attack, 176
Harbaugh, David E., New Lisbon, Ohio, attorney (1829), 55
Harlem Heights battle (1776), 252
Harmar Denny, donors to hospital, 66
Harmony Society of Economy, Frederick Rapp (1812), 90
Harper, Frank, newspaper man, author, 67, 70, 74
Harpster, John W., rev. of Richman's Historical Manuscript Depositories in Pennsylvania (1965), 396-398
Harriet Furnace, Blair County, 93-94, 96
Harris, Steven, wounded at Antietam (1862), 244
Harris, Thaddeus, letter (1803) quoted, 43-44, 63
Harris' 1844 Directory, lists 37 "Select Schools and Academies," 57
Harrison's Landing, Va. (July 19, 1862), 239-240
Harrold, Hugh, Phila. banker (1862), 171
Harry of the West Furnace (Temperance Furnace), Mercer County (1838), 289
Harts, Messrs., Pittsburgh ship owners (c.1824), 46
Hartzell, Roy D., Clarion County, 193
Haskell, Hilda (Mrs. Stanton Belfour), m. 1934, two children, 118
Greenville Furnace, Mercer County (1846), no traces left, 289
Greenville and Townshend, imperial policies (1865-1874), 320
Grischer, Jonathan, ironmaster, Armstrong County (1846), 88
Gulf Building, echo of Halicarnassus style, 233; but based on Bankers Trust Company Building (1913) in Manhattan, 233
Guns at the Forks, by Walter O'Meara (Prentice-Hall, 1965), rev., 297-299
Guthrie, Elizabeth (b.1755), daughter of John; m. Joseph Brownlee, biog. sketch (d.1842), 181
Guthrie, John, father of Mrs. Joseph Brownlee, deeds land to Daniel Turney (1789), 180
Guthrie, Joseph Brownlee, son of William Guthrie, 181
Guthrie, Capt. William, m. widow of Joseph Brownlee (c.1785), 181
Haslet, Col. John, killed at Princeton (1777), 267
Hasson, James, Clarion County ironmaster (1844), 193
Hatch Bros., buys Venango County iron furnace (1844), 368
Hayden, John, Fayette County iron furnace builder (c.1803), 275
Hayes, Alexander, Venango County iron furnace, 375
Healy and Millet, Chicago, stained glass firm, windows (1898) in Church of the Ascension, 16, 16b
Heath, Gen. William, 255
Heaton and McConnel, fail as iron furnace operators of Venango County, 366
Helen Furnace (Highland Furnace), Clarion County (1845), 194
“Hell’s Hollow,” beautiful spot in Lawrence County, 285
Hemlock Furnace, Clarion County (1845), 193, 195
Henderson, Andrew, partner (1811) in Allegheny Furnace, Blair County, 93
Henrietta Furnace, Blair County, probably later called Harriet, 94
Henry, Alexander, Phila. mayor (1862), 171
Henry, Michael, Venango County iron furnace operator (1856), 368
Henry, Gov. Patrick, frontier defense plans (1777), 120
Henry Busse, Inc., elevator installation at Historical Society building (1964), 213
Henry K. Siebeneck Memorial Room, HSWP (1959), 308
Heppelwhite and Sheraton, furniture styles, 150
Herald, steamer (c.1824), 46
Hermitage Furnace, Westmoreland County (1803), 379
Heron, Ann, supposed wife of George Croghan, 122
Hesseltine, William B., historian, 20, 20n, 21n, 22n, 23, 23n, 25n, 26n, 28n, 31n, 32, 32n; writer on Civil War, 168, 172
Hessians, mercenaries (1776), 256, 257, 259, 261, 263
Hickory Furnace, Butler County, modest home of owner, 79, 185-186
Himrod, William and David, Erie, Pa., ironmasters (1840s), 203
Hinkley, Jarvis and Company, Erie County iron furnace owners (1833), 202
Historical Manuscript Depositories in Pennsylvania, compiled by Irwin Richman (Harrisburg, 1965), rev., 396-398
Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania, est. (1879), 60; lecture meetings (1964), 213-215, not fully indexed
Historical Society Notes and Documents, “The Murdoch Family,” a letter from John Murdoch, Jr. (1802-1882) to his fiancee, Jane Robb, in Ireland (1826), 109-112; Murdoch genealogical sketch, 112-114; Annual Reports (for 1964), 213-218; President’s Page, Officers of HSWP, 307, thirty names not indexed
History, its place and role, 221
Hitchcock, Julia, deaf and dumb shop worker (1865), 314
Hodge, Rev. Mr. George, St. Phillip’s Mission, first pastor of Church of the Ascension parish (1888), 4; Associate Rector of Calvary Church (Dec., 1888), 4-5
Hodges, G. W., New York, builder of Cambria County iron furnace (1857), 383
Hoge, Thomas, Venango County iron furnace owner (1836), 274, 366
Holiday Inn, Oil City, Pa., on site of old iron furnace, 270
Holker, John, early ironmaster, letters, 271
Hollidaysburg, Pa., iron furnace area, 91, 95, 96, 98
Hollidaysburg Furnace, another name for Gaysport Furnace, 96
Homestead, steel strike (1892), 70
Homewood Cemetery, Murdoch family burial sites, 114
Homewood Furnace, Beaver County (1858-1867), 90-91
“Honest Abe,” famous Wisconsin eagle (1866), 335
Hooper, William, N. C. congressman (1777), 270
Hoopes, Townsend and Company, iron furnace builders (1808), 90
Hoover and Reed, owners of Venango County iron furnaces (1844), 372
Hope Furnace, Lawrence County (1845), 284
Hopewell, Bedford County, 92
Hopewell Furnace, Bedford County, illus., opp. 80; description, 92
Hopkins, Rev. J. H., chosen professor at Western University of Pennsylvania (1825), 57; selects teacher for Blairsville, Pa., 110; once clerk and manager of iron furnace, later bishop, 379
The Horn Papers, 282
Hornbostel, Henry, architect, designer of Soldiers’ and Sailors’ Memorial of Pgh., 233
Horner and Eaton, iron furnace owners, Clarion County (1850), 192
Horrell, Irwin, iron furnace operator, Somerset County (1825f.), 293
Horse Creek Furnace (Clay Furnace), Venango County (1836), 368
Horses, from thirty to forty needed at iron furnace, 79
Horsman, Reginald, Matthew Elliott, British Indian Agent (Detroit, 1964), rev., 303-304 Hospitals, est. in Pgh., Passavant (originally Pittsburgh Infirmary) (1849), federal marine at Woods Run (1851), Western Pennsylvania (1853), St. Francis (1865), Homeopathic (later Shadyside) (1865), Allegheny General (1865), 66

Hotels, very expensive rates at Pgh., as compared with Boston (c.1820), 71

House, of ironmaster Henry Spang, Blair County; store and office of Martha Furnace, illus., insert, 80-81; boyhood home of Andrew Gregg Curtin, photo, opp. 164; old Victor home, Fayette County, 276; the Huston home, Fayette County, 278

Houses: log or stone cabins of furnace laborers; of workmen, at Mt. Etna Furnace, Blair County, illus., opp. 81; 79, 97, 199

Houtz, Harvey, local history, 72

Howard, Lydia, Mass. friend of Grace Ellen Drew (1865), 311

Howard Association (c.1854), 66

Howard Heinz Foundation, Pgh., 117

Howe, John W., Venango County iron furnace owner, 274

Howe, Gen. Sir William, British commander in America (1776), 252, 254, 256, 257, 258

Huber, Linton and Myers, Somerset County iron furnace builders (1846), 294

Hudson River, N. Y., vital region (1776f.), 252-253

Huffnagel, Michael, reports Indian massacre of 1782, 179

Hughes and Bevin, Venango County iron furnace operators (1850-1854), 374

Hughes and Crawford,” Venango County iron furnace owners (1840), 367

Hulbert, Archer Butler, author, 43, 44

Humbolt, Alexander von, birthday celebrated (Pgh., 1869), 349

Hunt, Roy Arthur, and Hunt, Rachel Masters, donors of tapestry in Church of the Ascension, 14, 15

Hunt Stained Glass Studios, Pittsburgh, work (1962-1963) in Church of the Ascension, 16

Huston, Judge John, Fayette County iron furnace owner, 278

Huston, Joseph, Fayette County iron furnace owner (c.1791), 278

Industry, widespread opportunity in America (1826f.), 112; Pgh. “industrial princes,” 230

Inn, at New Alexandria, Pa., 224; called Old Stone Hotel, 225

Innis, James, Washington County (d.1791), last will mentions William Croghan, Sr., 123

Iron, Pittsburgh industry, strike (1850), 68; in early America, reduction use of charcoal, 77; improved technology, 78

Iron furnaces of W. Pa., alphabetical index, two hundred and forty-four names, 386-388

Iron City Commercial College (c.1860), 59

Iron City Furnace, Mercer County (1846), 290, 291

Iron Manufacturers’ Guide (1859), 190, 279, 381

Isaac Meason House, Mt. Braddock, Pa. (1802), 281

Isett, Jacob, ironmaster, Blair County (c.1855), 97

Illustrations: The Church of the Ascension by night, opp. 8; The 16th century tapestry of the Ascension, Church of the Ascension chancel, opp. 9

Immigrants, British, Irish, Welsh, French, Belgian, and German, 69

Impact of the Slavery Issue in Indiana County (Marion Center, Pa., 1964), rev., 209

Independent Rangers, Western Pennsylvania, in Revolutionary War, 177

Index, to WPHM (1-XLIII), useful, 216

Indian artifacts, many found at Indian Rock, Venango County, 375

Indian Creek (earlier Salt Creek), Fayette County iron furnace area, 275, 277, 278

Indian Queen Tavern, Phila., Pa. (1768), William Croghan, Sr., a resident, 123

Indian trade problem (1765-1768), 318-319

Indiana County, three iron furnaces, 282-283

Indiana University, 308

Indians, in relation to Croghans, 118-144 passim

I

J. and R. Lamb Studios, of Tenafly, N. J., church furnishings, 12

J. Mayberry and Company, builders of Westmoreland County iron furnace (c.1812), 378

Jackson, Stonewall, so-called (1862), 240

Jackson and Gibson, Fayette County iron furnace owners (1812-1828), 278

Jackson Furnace, Somerset County (1825), 293

Jackson Furnace, Venango County (1833-1856), 368

Jacobs Creek, Fayette County, first W. Pa. iron furnace (1790), 78, 171, 172, 271

James I, King, transplanted Scotch to Ireland, 112

James, Alfred P., rev. of Curry’s A House Divided: A Study of Statehood Politics and the Copperhead Movement in West Virginia, 104-105; rev. of Stephenson's The Impact of the Slavery Issue on Indiana County, 209; rev. of Horsman's Matthew Elliott, British Indian Agent, 303-304; rev. of Rodick's Appomatos: The Last Campaign, 403-404.

James Rogers and Associates, iron furnace builders (1827), 375
Jamison, John, ironmaster, 82
Jane Furnace, Venango County (1840), 368
Janssen, Benno (1874-1964), Pgh. architect, 11
Janssen and Abbott, Pittsburgh architectural firm, parish house of Church of the Ascension, 11, 13
Jefferson County Fiscal Court, Ky., restores Locust Grove, 147
Jefferson Furnace (Quaking Asp Furnace), Clarion County (1838), 195
Jefferson Ironworks, Steubenville, Ohio, flooded (1884), 52
Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, bids for W. Pa. students (1831), 55
Jefferson Station, railroad station, Clarion County, 195
Jeffery's Hook, Manhattan Island, Fort Washington, 252
Jerusalem, on tapestry in Church of the Ascension, 14
Jesup, T. S., paper in Library of Congress, 147n
Jewett, Lt. John T. A., a Bucktail officer (1861), 237
Jewett, W. T., Wichita, Kans. (1884), 53
John Bell and Company, Cambria County iron furnace builders (1845), rebuild (1856), 190; rebuild old iron furnace in Westmoreland County (1848), 382
John I. Kay & Co., Pgh. book dealers, circulating library (1830f.), 59
John Morgan, Continental Doctor, by Whitfield J. Bell, Jr. (Phila., 1965), rev., 299-301
John W. Ailes, Ohio River towboat, 48

Johnson, Pres. Andrew, political tour (1866), 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336
Johnson, W. H., organizes (1840) the New Furnace Company at Erie, Pa., later the Chicago and Erie Stove Company (1900), 203
Johnson, McClurg and Company, builders (1809) of Westmoreland County iron furnace, 382
Johnstown, Cambria County, great iron furnace area, 188-191 passim, 294
Johnstown Flats, iron furnaces (1854-1857), 189
Johnstown Flood (1889), closed out old Cambria County iron furnace, 383
Jones, Alexander Murdoch, Metuchen, N. J., owner of valuable letter (of 1826), 112; son of Robert W. Jones, 114
Jones, Benjamin, Fayette County iron furnace builder (1794), 279
Jones, Dorothea F., Lewistown, Pa., 114
Jones, George McMaster, son of Robert W. Jones, 114
Jones, Howard T., Metuchen, N. J., 114
Jones, Martha J., Lewistown, Pa., 114
Jones, Robert, Fayette County iron furnace builder (1794), 279
Jones, Robert Jameson, son of Robert W. Jones, 114
Jones, Robert Murdoch, Norwich, N. Y., 114
Jones, Robert Webster, m. Lydia Keller Murdoch, three sons, 113, 114
Jones, Mrs. Robert Webster, m. Lydia Keller Murdoch, q.v., 113
Jones, William Larimer, beneficence to hospital, 134
Jones Mill, Pa., old iron furnace area (c.1812), 378
Joseph B. Williams, coal boat, 48
Juniata Furnace, Blair County, water flume at top, 80, 96
Juniata River, Blair County iron furnace area (1802), 92, 96
Junta, Pgh. society est. (1882), 60

Kaine, David, buys New Laurel Furnace, Fayette County (1834), 277
Kane, John, Pgh. painter, 81, 82
Karthaus, Peter, Clearfield County iron furnace builder (1817), 202
Kaskaskia, (1772) garrison, 321
Katzenbach and Warren, Inc., N. Y., wallpaper experts, 149
Kay, John I., Pgh. publisher (1834), 54
Keating, John, Clarion, Pa., ironmaster (1846), 199
Keenan, T. J., Jr., Pgh., owner of Keenan Bldg. (1907), 232
Kehl, James, 44, 70, 71
Keller, William F., The Nation's Advocate, 44n, 54
Kelley, Florence, muckraker of the progressive era, 357
Kelley, William D., supports Curtin (1865), 36
Keltz, A. L., lives in old St. Clair home at Ligonier, Pa., 379
Kennedy, Mrs. Harold, donor (1947) of candlesticks, Church of the Ascension, 16
Kennedy, Campbell and Co., buy Lawrence County iron furnace (c.1850), 285
Kensington Furnace, Butler County, 186
Kentucky, its settlement aided Pgh. trade, 71
Kerfoot, Right Rev. John Barrett (1816-1881), first Episcopal Bishop of Pittsburgh, 4, 4n
Kerr, J. and P., Clarion County iron furnace owners (1846), 200
Kerr, James, Butler County ironmaster (1848), 187
Kerr, Samuel, iron furnace foreman (c.1832), 187
Kibby, William S., wounded at South Mountain (1862), died in a few days, 244
Killikelly, Sarah H., author, 62, 68
Kimberland & Co., hard woods dealers, Pgh. (1884), 53
Kimberly and Company, buy Lawrence County iron furnace (1866), 287
King, Henry, corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
King, John, Mercer County iron furnace builder (1846), 287
King, Swope and Company, iron furnace proprietors, 91
Kinzua, Pa. (1861), 235-248
Kip's Bay, Manhattan Island (1776), 252, 255
Kirkwood, Gov. Samuel, of Iowa, radical critic of Gen. McClellan (1862), 24, 26
Kittanning, Pa., iron furnace region, 82, 85, 88, 199
Kneelder vs Lane, Pa. Supreme Court decision against Pa. conscription act (1863), later reversed, 158
Knight, Dr. John, capture and escape, 126
Knopf (Knup), Frederick, Christian Soldier member (1863), 246
Knox, Gen. Henry, artillery chief (1776), 262; Secretary of War (1792), 271
Knox, P. C., vestryman, Church of the Ascension (1887), 4
Kraemer, Adam, Venango County, buys half interest in iron furnace, 369
Kraemer, Lewis, Venango County iron furnace builder (1846), 369
Kraemer Furnace, Venango County (1846), 369; probably only a forge, 369

Laughlinton, Pa., iron furnace area, 377
Laurel Hill Furnace, Westmoreland County, photo, opp. 373, 376; description, 379-380
Laurel Run, Cambria County, 189
Laurel Run, Fayette County, 277
Lawrence County, ten old iron furnaces, 284-287
Lawrence Furnace, Lawrence County, on edge of cliff, 80, 285
Leavett-Schenley, Mrs. U. M. (1964), alleged granddaughter of Mary Croghan Schenley, 122, 122n, 150
Ledlie, George, ironmaster, 82
Lee, Gen. Charles, 255, 258
Lee, Hancock, Virginian settler in Ky., sold land to William Croghan (1790), 146, 146n
Lemnos Furnace, Blair County, on Yellow Creek (1841), 92
LeMoyne, F., corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
Lester, Sennett and Chester, Erie County iron furnace owners, later Germer Stove Company, 202
Levin, Bernard, 154, 167n, 171
Lewis, Joel, M.D., first president (1821) of Pgh. Medical Society, 60
Lewis, Virginia, Russell Smith (1956), 56
Liberty Furnace, Venango County, beautiful water fall, 80, 369
Libraries, in Pittsburgh, circulating (1830), 59
Licking Creek (Licking Run), Clarion County, 195, 196, 198
Licking Furnace, Clarion County (1845), 195
Limestone Furnace, Clarion County (1845), 196
Linabarger, James, writer on riots of 1850, 68
Lincoln, Pres. Abraham, not close personal friend of Gov. Andrew Curtin, 19; in Pgh. (1861), 69; politics (1861), 151; memorial (1865), 313, 331
Link, Arthur, historian, 355
Liquor, heavy drinking at iron furnaces, 79
Lisa, Manuel, fur trader, New Orleans (1811), 54
Lissfelt, J. Fred, author, 69
Little Falls Furnace, Fayette County, modest house of its owner, 79; 275
Lockout, by Leon Wolff (New York, 1965), rev., 399-400
Lockport Furnace, Westmoreland County (1844), 380
Locust Grove, alleged Kentucky home of George Rogers Clark (1809-1818), 145-150
Logan House, finest hotel (1862) in Altoona, Pa., 24
Logstown, Pa., visit (1770) of George Washington, 138
London National Gallery, great art collection, 15
Long, J. D., vestryman, Church of the Ascension (1887), 4
Long Island Sound, steamers of Fisk transport, Pres. Grant (1865), 347
Longfellow, Alden and Harlow, firm of architects, 229
Loop Furnace, Indiana County (1847), no traces, 283
Lorang, Stefan, Pittsburgh, the Story of an American City, 60, 60n; (Garden City, N. Y., 1964), rev., 101-104
Lord Dunmore (John Murray) rebuilds Fort Pitt (1774), 329
Lord Hillsborough (Wills Hill), British Secretary of State (1771), 320
Louisiana Purchase, promoted by Ohio Valley farmers and merchants (1803), 43
Louisville, Ky., feared as potential rival of Pgh., 71
Louvre, Paris, art center, 15
Love, Dr. Martha, Greensburg, Pa., lived in old St. Clair home at Ligonier, Pa., 379, 385
Lowry, Eichelberger and Company, owners of Blair County furnaces, 92
Loy and Patterson, builders of Lemnos Furnace, 92
Lucinda Furnace, Clarion County (1833), 196
Lumbering, at Kinzua, Pa. (c.1840), 236
Lunk, William A., Parsons, W. Va., drawings (1964), 210
Lyon, John, probable owner of Venango County iron furnace, 374
Lyon, Shorb and Company, iron furnace proprietors (c.1830), 93, 197
Lyons, J. B., Clarion County iron furnace owner (1845), 196
Lyons, Mix and Company, owners of Mercer County iron furnace (1847), 291
Lytle, C. E., Venango County iron furnace operator, 366
Lytle, Edward, ironmaster, large house at Rebecca Furnace, 79; Blair County iron furnace manager, 98

M
McBride, Isaac, Miller’s Run settler (1772), 138
McBride, James, Miller’s Run settler (c.1772), 138, 141
McBride, Samuel, Miller’s Run settler (c.1772), 138, 141
McCalmont, Alexander, Venango County iron furnace owner (c.1832), 370
McCalmont and Bush, Venango County iron furnace operators (c.1840), 373
McCalmont’s Furnace, Venango County (c.1832), 370
McCaslin, Andrew, Venango County iron furnace builder (1832), 372
McCausland, Gen., burns Chambersburg (July, 1864), 163
McClellan, Gen. George B., severe losses in the Peninsula (1862), more troops necessary, 20; election campaign (1864), 37; his recommendations protested by Gov. Curtin, 152, 161
McClelland, George, Venango County iron furnace man (1825-1830), 367
McClelland and Company, Indiana County iron furnace firm (1847), 283
McClure, Alexander, Pennsylvania politician and author, 25, 27, 33, 36, 151, 157, 161, 167, 170, 172
McClure, Rev. David, diary, 324
McClure, John, Mercer County iron furnace builder (1846), 288
McClure, Joseph, Mercer County iron furnace builder (1846), 288
McClurg, Alexander, builder (1810), of Westmoreland County iron furnace, 380
McCook, Dr., heads seizure of southbound goods (1861), 69
McCrae, James, corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
McCrae and Galbraith, iron production firm (1857), 86
McCrae Furnace (Olney Furnace), Armstrong County, 86-87
McCullough, Mr., reputed Greene County iron furnace builder (1779), 282
McCullough, Thomas, Clarion County iron furnace owner (1859), 199
McCune, Michael, Clarion County lessee of iron furnace (1801), 200
MacDonald, Scottish clan, a sept or subdivision, had coat of arms, 112
McDowell, Gen. Irvin, tactics (1862), 243
McFarland, James, Mercer County iron furnace builder (1846), 287
McFetridge, Rev. R. J., rector of Church of the Ascension (1911-1914), 5
McGill, J., Westmoreland County iron furnace builder, 377
McGowan, Robert, ironmaster, Butler County (1838), 187
McGowan Map of Pittsburgh and Allegheny (1854), cited, 2
McGuire, Rev. Mr., proposed teacher of Spanish (1825), 58
McJunkin, David, ironmaster (1838), 187
McKay, James, church charter signer (1888), 4
McKean, Thomas, Justice of the Supreme Court (Pa.) (1786), 141
McKean, Thomas, ironmaster (1820), 273
McKee, Alexander, Deputy Indian Agent at Fort Pitt (1772), 325, 326
McKee and Harris, fail as Venango County iron furnace operators, 366
McKennan, Emma Willard, m. William Wrenshall Smith (1867), 346
McKennon, Thomas and William, builders of Westmoreland County iron furnace (1844), 380
McKim, Meade and White, architectural firm (1896), 9
McKinley, William, father of the President, Mercer County iron furnace owner (1838), 289
McKinley, land William, worked as a boy in Lawrence County iron furnace, 284
McKittrick, Eliza, letter (1826), to Andrew Bryson, 110
McKnight, Joseph, sells Spring Hill (1867), 346
McLean, Mrs. Alberta, "granddaughter" of Mary Coughlin Schenley, 122n
McLeod, Mrs., proprietress of "Brighton School" near New York City, 132
McMillan, Rev. W. H., Moderator of General Assembly of United Presbyterian Church (1883), 62
McNaughton, Alexander, Clarion County ironmaster (1845), 194
McNeal, Hugh, Cambria County (1847) ironmaster, 188
McNeil, Col. Hugh W., Bucktail Regiment, killed at Antietam (1862), 244
McNickle, A., owner of Allegheny Furnace, near Kittanning (1827), 82
McVeagh, Wayne, Pa., Republican State Committee chairman (1863), 170
Madison Furnace, Clarion County (1836), 196-197
Mahoning Creek, Armstrong County, 87, 88
Mahoning Dam, Armstrong County, 86
Mahoning Furnace (Colwell Furnace), Armstrong County (1845), 86
Mammouth Cave, Ky., once owned by Dr. John Croghan, son of William, Sr., 127
Manhattan Island (1765), 252
Manning, William, Pgh. architect (1947), 12
Maple Furnace, Butler County, 186-187
Maps: 1854 McGowan Map of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, 2; map of transportation routes (1831) exhibited by Neville B. Craig, 72; graph of region of Indian Massacre (1781), opp. 179
Marbleheaders, naval transporters (1776), 262
Marion Furnace, Butler County (1848), 187; photo, opp. 188
Markham, Edward, progressive era muck-raker, 357
Marmie, Peter, early ironmaster, 271
Martha Furnace, Blair County, illus. on front of page opp. 81; description, 96-97
Martha Furnace (Folk Furnace), Clarion County (1845), 197
Martha Furnace, Lawrence County (1844), 285
Martial, Latin author, 221, 222
Martin, Samuel, vestryman, Church of the Ascension (1887), 4
Martin and Lewis (Messrs.), iron furnace, Fayette County (1800), 276
Mary Ann Furnace, Clarion County (1844-1851), 197
Mary Ann Furnace, Fayette County (1800), 276
Mary Avery, ship, brig (130 tons), at Marietta, O. (1803), 43
Mason, H. L., incorporator of Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
Mathiot, Col. J. D., Westmoreland County iron furnace owner (1853), 376, 382
Matthew Elliott, British Indian Agent, by Reginald Horsman (Detroit, 1964), rev., 303-304
Maulsby, Persian satrap, king, 222, 234
Mawhood, Col. Charles, British army (1776), 267
Mazepa Furnace, Mercer County (1852-1859), 290
Meadville Academy, Classical Department (1826), 111
Meason, Isaac, ironmaster, Dunbar Furnace (1815), 273, 274, 276, 280, 281, 282
Medical College of Ohio, Cincinnati (1829), 55
Meerwald, Sister M. Cornelius, History of the Pittsburgh Mercy Hospital, 65-66
Mellon, Andrew W., donor to hospital, 134
Mellon family, given credit for Fort Ligonier reconstruction aid, 406
Mellon, Shelton & Co., Freedom, Pa. (1884), 53
Memorial Church of the Ascension, organization begun (Dec. 5, 1887), 4
Memorial to Andrew Gregg Curtin, photo, opp. 164
Meneely, A. H., War Department, author, 153n, 154n, 160, 171
Mercantile Library Association, Pgh. (c.1830), 60
Merce, Gen. Hugh, killed at Princeton (1777), 267
Merce, Pa., iron furnace area, 287, 288, 290
Mercer County, fifteen iron furnaces, 287-293
Mercy Hospital, contagion measures, 64
Meredith, William, attorney-general of Pennsylvania (1863), 37
Metropolitan Museum, N. Y., notable Ascension tapestry from collection of Electors of Saxony, 15
Metz, W. R., Williamsburg, Blair County, attests old furnaces, 94, 96
Meyers, Christian, Clarion County iron furnace builder (1828), 192, 197
Military supplies, captured at Fort Washington (1776), 253; captured at Fort Lee, N. J. (1776), 254; at Fort Pitt, advertised for sale at Bedford and Ligonier (1772), 322-323
Mill Creek Furnace, Cambria County, 189, 190
Miller, Eliza, artist, alms basins, Church of the Ascension (1955), 18
Miller, Herschel, master builder of Croghan-Schenley house, Pgh. (d.1930), 144
Miller, John C., Triumph of Freedom, 250, 253, 254
Miller, John L., Pgh., purchases Clarion County iron furnace (c.1890), 202
Miller, P. Schuyler, rev. of Dragoo's Mounds for the Dead: Analysis of the Adena Culture (Pgh., 1963), 391-395
Miller, Reuben (1839-1917), industrialist, promotes new Episcopal parish (1887), 3; vestryman, 4; memorial mural, 13
Miller, William S., donor of materials of Croghan-Schenley Room (Univ. of Pgh.), 144
Miller and Lang, Clarion County iron furnace owners (1850), 191
Miller and Sons, Clarion County iron furnace owners (1850), 192
Miller, Rogers and Paull, ironmasters (1818), 273
"Miller's Blockhouse," Westmoreland County Indian raid, 175, 177, 182
Miller's Run land (c.1772), 138
Mills and Lowry, Mercer County iron furnace owners (1846), 289
Mitlenberger and Brown, Fayette County forge operators (c.1829), 275
Mineral Ridge Furnace, Mercer County, 290
Mingo-town, old Ohio River town, 45
Missouri Compromise (1820), abolished slavery in upper Ohio Valley, 67
Mitchell, John, family at Washington, Pa. (1826), 110
Mitchell, Osborne, rev. of Cummings' Scots Breed and Susquehanna (Pgh., 1964), 205-207
Mochabee, Reuben, buyer of Fayette County iron furnace, 277
"Molly Maguires," Schuylkill County, oppose military conscription (1862), 157
Monitor, up river trip (Jan. 21, 1882), 51
Monongahela House, Pgh. hotel, Lincoln (1861), 69; visit of President Grant (1869), 349
Monroe, Pres. James, visits Pgh. arsenal (1817), 67; wounded at Trenton (1776), 263
Monroe Furnace, Clarion County (1845-1882), 198
Montaigne, French essayist, 221
Monticello Furnace, Armstrong County (1859-1873), 87
Moore, E. Earl, "In Remembrance," item, 308-309; wrote "Introduction to the Holker Papers," 309
Moore, M. P., Levittown, Pa., information and materials on old iron furnace in Cambria County, 383, 384
Moore and Seymour, Clarion County iron furnace owners (1850), 195
Moreland, Dan (1884), 53
Morgan, Gov. Edwin, of New York, sends personal agent to Cleveland Conference (1861), 20, 23, 36
Morgan, Rev. G., new president of Western University of Pennsylvania (1836), 58
Morgan, Col. George, Continental Congress Indian Agent, replacing George Croghan (1776), 121
Morison, Samuel Eliot, historian, 268m, 269-270
Morneweck, Evelyn Foster, Chronicles of Stephen Collins Foster's Family (Pgh., 1944), 130m
Morris, George W., corporator, Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
Morris, Robert, aids Washington (1776), 265, 269; investor (1783), 271
Morris, William, artist, 16
Morristown, N. J. (1776-1777), 256, 268
Morton, Joseph C., rev. of Sarles and Shedd's Colonials and Patriots: Historic Places Commemorating Our Forebears, 1700-1783 (1964), 395-396
Morton, Gov. Oliver, of Indiana, at Cleveland Conference (1861), 20
Mosquito Creek, Clarion County, known as Little Moshannon Creek, 202
Mounds for the Dead: An Analysis of the Adena Culture, by Don W. Dragoo (Pgh., 1963), rev., 381-395
Mt. Braddock, Pa., Isaac Meason House (1802), 281
Mt. Etna Furnace, Blair County, surviving cabins of laborers, 79, 97
Mt. Etna Furnace, Butler County (1822), 187-188
Mt. Hope Furnace (Hopewell Furnace), Westmoreland County (1810), 380
Mount of Olives, tapestry setting, 14
Mt. Pleasant Furnace, Westmoreland County (1810), 380
Mount Vernon, home of George Washington, 270
Mount Vernon Furnace, Fayette County built (1795) by Isaac Meason, 276
Mt. Vernon Furnace (Johnstown Furnace), Cambria County (1846), 190
Mount Washington, Pgh., tunnel entrance sealed, 81
Mount, A. S. T., "eminent" Pgh. lawyer (1823), 129
Muckrakers, 357
Murdoch, Alexander (1840-1893), served in Civil War, son of John, Jr., m. Lydia Keller McMaster, three children, 113; a founder of Homewood Cemetery, Pgh., 114
Murdoch, Alexander (1877-1951), son of Alexander, m. Anna Beringer, 113-114
Murdoch, Andrew (1805-1829), son of John, Sr., 113
Murdoch, David, son of John, Jr., 113
Murdoch, Eliza (b.1812), immigrant, daughter of John, Sr., 113
Murdoch, Elizabeth Campbell (1780-1835), m. John Murdoch, six children, 113
Murdoch, Ellen, daughter of John, Jr., Civil War nurse under Clara Barton, m. John Watson, 113
Murdoch, George, son of John Murdoch, 3rd, 114
Murdoch, Isabella (b.1818), immigrant, daughter of John, Sr., 113
Murdoch, James (b.1815), immigrant, son of John, 113
Murdoch, Jane Robb (Mrs. John Murdoch, Jr.), 113
Murdoch, Jane Robb, daughter of Alexander Murdoch, m. Alfred C. Dickey, 113
Murdoch, John, Jr. (1802-1882), letter of 1826 to Jane Robb, and genealogical notes, 109-114; portrait of John Murdoch (1780-1827), opp. 112; house, 113
Murdoch, John, 3rd, grandson of John Murdoch, Sr., house of, 113; m. Miss Winebiddle, four children, 114
Murdoch, Mrs. John, 3rd, nee Winebiddle, four children, 114
Murdoch, John Robb, son of John Murdoch, 3rd, 114
Murdoch, Lydia Keller (1872-1955), m. Robert Webster Jones, 113
Murdoch, Margaret (b.1827), daughter of John, Sr., 113
Murdoch, Sarah, daughter of John Murdoch, 3rd, 114
Murdoch, William (b.1807), immigrant (1826), son of John, Sr., 113
Murdoch Farms, property of John Murdoch, Sr., immigrant (1826), 113
Murdoch Genealogical Sketch, by Robert Jameson Jones, 112-114, about three dozen name items
Murphy, Phillip, iron furnace operator, Somerset County (1825?), 293
Murray, Elijah, letter (1830), cited, 73
Myra Furnace, Lawrence County (c.1853-1870), 285-286

N
Nassau Hall, Princeton, bombarded (1777), 268
Nathaniel Gibson House, Fayette County, early large stone mansion, 275
National Archives, Washington, D. C., soldier's pension file, 235
National Union Convention (Phila., 1866), 338
Natural gas, aid to glass making elsewhere in competition with Pgh. area, 357
Neff, Dean and Company, owners of Juniata Furnace, Blair County (1857), 96
Negley, Gen. James S., head of Residence Committee of Pgh. Convention (1866), 335, 337, 341
Negroes, in the Union Army, proposed as aim (1862), 25

Nedham, Willie, Norwich, 314
Neshannock Creek, Lawrence County, 286
Neshannock Furnace (Powers Furnace), Lawrence County (c.1850-1861), 286
Nevin, Ethelbert, composer, at Western University of Pennsylvania (1876-1880), 62
Nevins, Allan, historian, comment on Altoona Conference (1861), 28; The Improvised War, 153, 155, 171
Newland, Laura, Mass. friend of Grace Ellen Drew (1865), 311
New Alexandria, Pa., its historic inn, 222
New Brunswick, N. J., British entry (1776), 256, 259
New Castle, Del. (1776), 255
New Castle, Lawrence County iron furnace area, 284, 285
New Enterprise Limestone Company, McKees Gap, Blair County, 98
New Laurel Furnace, Fayette County, not near passable road, 80; built (1812), 276, 277
New Orleans, market for Ohio valley produce, 43
New Orleans, Pittsburgh-built steamer (1811), 44
New York Herald (Sept. 25, 1862), reports unique account of the Altoona Conference, 23, 23n, 26
New York National War Committee (1862), 22
New York Times, pro-Johnson (1866), 337, 347
New York Tribune, comment on the Altoona Address (1862), 26; on Pgh. convention (1866), 336, 340
Newark, N. J., architecture, 7; (in 1776), 255
Newton, Sir Charles Thomas, British archaeologist, authority on Halicarnassus, 226
Nixon, Lily Lee, conveys letter of 1865, 310
Noble, Henry, Indiana County iron furnace builder (1837), 282
Nolan, J. Bennett, "Descent of the Allegheny 1818," WPHM cited, 48-51
North Carolina, dominated by carpetbaggers (1866), 335, 340
North Libraries, Allegheny County borough (1831), 49
Northwest Territory, settlement aided Pgh. prosperity, 71

21
Oak Grove Furnace, Westmoreland County (1854), 381
Oakland, the cultural district of Pgh., 1-18 passim
Oberlin, Merle, Clarion County guide (1961), 193
Ockenden, Rev. Mr. Albion C., priest, Church of the Ascension (1925), 6
Ogle, Charles, iron furnace operator, Somerset County (1855-1860), 293
O'Hara, Elizabeth F., m. Harmar Denny; a donor of hospital site, 133
O'Hara, Gen. James, shipbuilder, 45, 130; glass industry, 356; gets possession of the estate of Gen. Arthur St. Clair, 379
O'Hara, Mary Carson, m. William Croghan, Jr., three children, 130
Ohio River, channel improvement asked (1808), 71
Oil City Boat Club, 368
Oil Creek Furnace (Cray's Furnace), Venango County (c.1824), 368, 370
Old Cambria Furnace, Cambria County (1841), 189
Old Drury (Pittsburgh theater), first performance (1833), 56
Old Economy, home of the Harmony Society, 90
"Old" Furnace, Erie County, blind horse used, 80; (1833), 202-203
Old Laurel Furnace, Fayette County (1812), 276, 277
"Old" Redbank Furnace, Armstrong County (1841), 87-88, 199
Oldham, William, reported builder (1841) of Somerset County iron furnace, 293
Oliphant, F. H., Fayette County ironmaster (1855-1860), 273, 274, 275
Oliphants, Fayette County, buy iron furnace (1833), 279; reputed builders (c.1777) of Greene County iron furnace, 282
Oliver, Henry W., skyscraper monument, 228, 231-232
O'Meara, Walter, Guns at the Forks, rev., 297-299
Omiscr Delta Kappa, national fraternity, activities, Stanton Belfour a member, 118
Omsler (Omsler), James, lumberman (1884), 51
Ore Hill Furnace, Armstrong County (1845), 88
Oregon Furnace, Mercer County (1845), 281
Ormsby, John, Pittsburgh magnate (1803), 43
Ormsby, Joseph B., will (1803), shipping, 43
Orr, Gov. James L., South Carolina (1866), 333
Osterling, F. J., Pgh. architect, designer of Union Arcade (1916), 231
Over, Right Rev. W. H., priest, Church of the Ascension (1926), 6
Overman, Frederick, Westmoreland County iron furnace builder (1847), 381

Page, Robert, glass works (1808), 356
Paine, Thomas, The Crisis (1776), 256
Painter, William, backer of Covode (1863), 33n; manuscript letter reproduced, 39-42
Palais de Sagan, Paris, tapestry sold, 14
Panic of 1873, 69-70
Park Building, built (1896) by D. E. Park and W. G. Park, 230, 232; photo, opp. 229
Passaic River (1776), 254
Passavant, Rev. William, hospital founder, 66
Patterson, Gen. Robert, calls for 25,000 Pa. troops, 155
Paull, James (and Sons), built iron furnace in Fayette County (c.1827), 277, 382
Paxson, Samuel, Fayette County iron furnace owner (1797), 277
Peabody and Stearns, architectural firm (1896), 9
Pearce, Mrs., cousin of William Croghan, Jr., 131
Pearse, J. B., Iron Manufacture in Pennsylvania, 282
Pearson, J. L., Gothic Revival, English architect, 8
Peeble and Company, iron manufacture, New Castle, Pa. (1853), 286
Penn, Lt. Gov. Richard, asks (1772) return of Pa. ordnance, 323, 324, 325
Pennsylvania, first iron production (1692), 78; Civil War politics, 166
Pennsylvania Advocate, a proposed Pgh. newspaper (1832), 68
Pennsylvania Argus (1836), 176
Pennsylvania Bureau of Women and Children, report on minors in the glassware industry (1921), 358
Pennsylvania Central Railroad (c.1861), 159, 160
Pennsylvania Federation of Historical Societies, Stanton Belfour former president, 117
Pennsylvania Forensic and Music League, Stanton Belfour a secretary, 118
Pennsylvania Geological Survey, No. 2, 277
Pennsylvania Legislature, during Civil War, 164, 166
Pennsylvania Railroad, riots (1877), 70; built (1860) across site of old Shadyside Furnace, 82; litigation against William Croghan (c.1850), 134; 164, 179, 182
Pennsylvania Reserves (May, 1861), 154
Pennsylvania School Music Association, Stanton Belfour a director, 118
Pennsylvania Senate Military Committee (1860), 168
Pennsylvania State Archives, Harrisburg, Pa., 173
Pennsylvania State Game Lands, 376
Pennsylvania State People's Party (1860), 168

Pennsylvania Supreme Court (1786), 141, 142; (1863), 157
Pennsylvania Turnpike, passes over site of old iron furnace on Jacobs Creek, Westmoreland County, 380-381
Pennsylvania-Virginia boundary dispute, involved George Croghan (Pa.) and George Washington (Va.), 122, 126, 138
Pennzoil, built plant at Sligo, Pa., 201
The People's Party, in Pennsylvania (1861), 29
Periodicals, of the glass industry, six named, 357n
Peter Livingood and Company, Cambria County ironmasters (1846), 190
Petition, for 300,000 volunteers (1862) approved by seventeen governors, 21
Phi Alpha Theta, national historical fraternity, Stanton Belfour a president, 118
Phi Delta Kappa, national educational fraternity, Stanton Belfour a member, 118
Philadelphia, convention (1866), 333
Philadelphia-Fort Pitt-Fort Chartres, line of supply, abandoned (1772), 320-321
Philadelphia Pike (1826), later William Penn Highway, 110
Philadelphia Press, 27
Philadelphia Sun, item (1849), 128
Phipps, David, buys Venango County iron furnace (1835), 365
Phipps, Henry, skyscrapers along Allegheny River, 228; Bessemer Building, Fulton Building, 232
Phoenix Furnace, Armstrong County (1846), 88
Pi Sigma Alpha, fraternity, Stanton Belfour a member, 118
Pic Nic (1831), a suburban home of William Croghan, Jr., and his surviving daughter, its history, 130n; 143-144
Picasue, New Orleans (1849), 128
Pierpont, F. H., West Virginia moderate (1826), 22
Pike Furnace, Clarion County (1845-1868), 198
Pine Furnace, Armstrong County, 89
Pine Grove Furnace, Fayette County (1805), 277
Pinecroft, Blair County, site (1832) of iron furnace, 95
Pitcairn-Crabbe Foundation, Pgh., 117
Pittsburgh, as center of enlightenment (c.1775-1895), 54-63; public health, cities breed and scatter diseases, 63-67; nineteenth century industries (mining, furnaces, ovens, gears, printing, etc.), 69; as public affairs center, 67-70; use of the Halicarnassus memorial tomb in architecture, 227f.;
moguls use skyscraper buildings as monuments, 228f.; notable glass industry center, 356
Pittsburgh, ship (275 tons), at Marietta, O. (1803), 43
Pittsburgh Academy, later Western University of Pennsylvania, 57
Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania, steamer (c.1824), 46
Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad Company, railroad rivalries, 75
Pittsburgh Bible Society (1815), 55
Pittsburgh Blues, militia company, some members once in War of 1812, 127
Pittsburgh Board of Public Education, 117
Pittsburgh Circulating Library (c.1831), 59
Pittsburgh City Board of Trade (c.1854), 66
The Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette (1884), 51
Pittsburgh Committee of Correspondence, George Croghan chairman, 120
Pittsburgh Diocese, Episcopal, 1-18 passim
Pittsburgh Foundation (c.1945), Stanton Belfour chosen as director, 117
The Pittsburgh Gazette (1863), supports Curtin, 35, 48, 49
Pittsburgh Leader, Bull Moose newspaper, 357
Pittsburgh Mechanics Institute (1830), 56
Pittsburgh Medical Society, est. (1821), 60
Pittsburgh Mercury, 67
Pittsburgh Permanent Library (c.1830), 60
Pittsburgh Philosophical Society (1817), 56; (1825), 58
The Pittsburgh Post, organ of James Barr (1863), 35
Pittsburgh Reduction Company, promoted by the Hunt, Clapp, Davis and Mellon families (c.1888), 62
"The Pittsburgh Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, Sept. 25-26, 1866," by Charles D. Cashdollar, 331-343
Pittsburgh Stained Glass Studios, window in Church of the Ascension (1918), 17
Pittsburgh: The Story of an American City, by Stefan Lorant (1964), rev., 101-104
The Pittsburgh Survey, 360n, 363
Pittsburgh Symphony Society, Stanton Belfour a director, 118
Pittsburgh theater (1813), 55. See Old Drury Pittsburgh, YMCA (1854), YWCA (1875), 60
"Pittsburgh as Viewed from Down River," by Stanton C. Crawford and Mary C. Brown, Part II, 43-76
Pliny the Elder (50 A. D.), describes Halicarnassus, 226
Plumer, L. M., vestryman, Church of the Ascension (1887), 4
Plumer, S. F., vestryman, Church of the Ascension (1887), 4
Plumley, Rev. Mr. J. Lawrence, rector, Church of the Ascension (1950), bishop of Diocese of Louisiana (1953), 6
Plummer and Creary, Clarion County iron furnace operators (1844-1858), 191, 195

23
Plumsock, the first W. Pa. rolling mill, 281
Polk, Pres. James Knox, iron furnace named for him but dropped (1842), 197
Pontiac's Rebellion (1863), 318
Pope, Prof. J. W., political song, satire (1866), 336
Pope, Gen. John, defeated (1862), 21
Population, Pgh. reaches 321,616 in 1900 census, 70
Portage Railroad, Incline No. 6 (1851), 189
Porter, Fannie, writes sister (1861), 69
Porter, George McCandless, diary of 1864, cited, 50, 51, 63
Porter, Gen. Horace, President Grant's secretary (1869), 349
Porter, James, builder of Venango County iron furnace (1840), 373
Porter, Mary, school girl writes about diseases (1850-1852), 63
Porter R. Friend and Company, Lawrence County iron furnace owners (1856), 287
Porterfield, Joseph, Venango County iron furnace operator (1837-1838), 370
Porterfield Furnace (Glen Furnace) (Mill Creek Furnace), Venango County (1837-1838), on impassable road, 80; discussed, 370-371
Portsmouth, O., iron workers aid Pgh. strikers (1850), 68
Post, George B., architect of Bank of Pittsburgh, 229; and of Park Bldg., 230
Post, Pgh. Democratic newspaper (1866), upholds President Johnson, 335, 337
Power, Waugh and Reed, Mercer County iron furnace builders (1846), 288
Powers, Theodore, Lawrence County iron furnace owner (1848), 284; builder (1844) of furnace in New Castle, Pa., 285
Powers, W. G. and C. A., Lawrence County iron furnace owners (c.1850-1861), 286
Prayer meeting group, Protestant (c.1861),
Presbyterianism in W. Pa. (1829), five or more congregations, far-flung Synod of Pittsburgh, 55
President Furnace, Venango County (1854), 371
The President's Page, "Outings and Tours of the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania (1879-1965)," 407-409, not fully indexed
Prevost, Augustine, British army officer, m. Susannah Croghan, 121, 125, 128
Prevost, Sir George, probably son of Augustine Prevost and Susannah Croghan, 128
Prices, in Pittsburgh (1826), flour, wheat, oats, corn, potatoes, butter, meat, horses and cows, 111
Printing presses, made (c.1817), by Mr. Ross of Steubenville, 55
Probst, John, purchaser (1798), of first Westmoreland County iron furnace, 383
Proclamation of 1763, 318
Progressivism in Ohio, 1897-1917, by Hoyt Landon Warner (Columbus, O., 1964), rev., 401-402
Prohibition era, created soda pop industry, 364
Prospect Furnace, Clarion County (1845), 198
Providence, Rhode Island, war conference (Sept., 1862), 22
Pythius, Sabyrus, Sabry Island, war conference at Halicarnassus, 226

Q
Quarrying, near New Wilmington, Pa., ruined old iron furnace, 284

R
Radical Republicans (1866), 331-343 passim
"Raftsmen's Guard" (1861), later Co. D of Bucktail Regiment, 235
Railroad rivalries (c.1865), analyzed, 75
Railroads, actively promoted by Pittsburgh (c.1830), 74
Rall, Col. Johann Gottlieb, Hessian commander at Trenton (1776), 261; killed, 263
Ramsey, William, reporter on site of Wildcat Furnace, 202
Ramsey Furnace, Westmoreland County (1847), 381
Randall, Gov. A. W., of Wisconsin, at Cleveland Conference (1861), 20
Rankin, Alan C., vice chancellor, University of Pittsburgh, occupied (1964) Croghan-Schenley room, 143
Rankin, Samuel Adam, Mulberry, Mo., diary of 1883, 62
Rapp, Frederick, attempted purchase of iron furnace (1812), 90
Raymilton Furnace, Venango County (1844), 371
Raymond, A. W., Venango County iron furnace builder (1844), 371
Raymond, Henry, conservative Republican (1866), 333
Raymond, Philander, ironmaster at Brady's Bend, Pa. (1840), 84
Raymond and Gray, Venango County iron furnace firm (1850), 374
Rebecca Furnace, of Edward Lytle, Blair County, 79, 97-98
Reconstruction, following the Civil War, 331-343, 345
Recruitment (1861), dominant policy, 154
Red Bank Creek, Armstrong County iron furnace site, 86, 199
Redbank (later Kellersburg), Armstrong County, 88
Redbank Furnace (New Redbank Furnace),
Clarion County (1859-1890), 199
Redstone Creek, Fayette County iron furnace area, 278
Redstone Furnace, Fayette County, modest house of its ironmaster, 79, 278
Reed, David, settled (1777), on Chartiers Creek land, ownership disputed, 139
Reed, Col. John, commandant at Fort Pitt (1765) plans restoration, 318
Reed, John, settler on Chartiers Creek land (1777), 139
Reed, Col. Joseph, adjutant general (1776), 257
Reed, Hezekiah, Gallagher and Hale, builders of Westmoreland County iron furnace (1845), 379
Reed Furnace (Annadale Furnace), Mercer County (1843-1848), 291
Religion, in W. Pa. (c.1810), Methodist, German Evangelical, Protestant Episcopal and Roman Catholic churches, 55
Reno Furnace, Venango County (1844), 372
Republican Party, two factions in Pa. (1861), 166; convention (1860), 168; (in 1866), 331-343 passim
Resolution, of Pgh. Republican convention (1866), 342-343
“Revivalists,” Gothic architecture, 8
Revolutionary War (1775-1783), George Croghan suspect, 120, 125, 142, 175, 176, 271, 356
Reynolds, Alexander, ironmaster, Armstrong County (1841), 87, 199
Reynolds, George, Clarion County ironmaster (1849), 193
Reynolds, H., buys Venango County iron furnace, 369
Reynolds, John, Cornwall (Lebanon County), an owner of Clarion County iron furnace, 196
Reynolds, Gen. John F., sent to aid of Pa. (1862), 160
Reynolds and Kribbs, Clarion County iron furnace owners (1850), 194
Reynolds and Moorhead, Clarion County owners of iron furnace, 199
Richardson, H. H. (1838-1886), architect of Emmanuel Church, Pittsburgh, 7; Romanesque style, 8; Allegheny County Court House, 228
Richland Furnace, Clarion County (1846), later “Katen” Furnace, 199
Ritter and Irwin, iron furnace company (1846-1848), 190
Rivalry of downriver communities with Pittsburgh, 70
River stages and weather, Pittsburgh, 48-54
Roads: Pennsylvania Road, Huntingdon Turnpike, feeder roads, 72-73; to furnaces in W. Pa., 81f.
Robb, Jane (1804-1850), m. John Murdoch, Jr., many children, 113
Robinson, James, Greene County ironmaster (1800), 282
Rockingham Furnace, Somerset County (1844), 293
Rockland Furnace, Venango County, beautiful large waterfall, 80; (1832), 372
Rockwell, Dempsey and Week, iron furnace operators, Venango County, 372
Rodolff Shalom Temple, original society (1846), 55
Rodman, Blair County, site of rebuilt iron furnace, 91
Rodman Furnaces, known as Upper Maria, Middle Maria and Lower Maria, owned by Shoenberger, 98
Rodman Upper Maria Furnace, Blair County, 91, 98
Rogers, George, Fayette County ironmaster (1832), 275
Rogers, Guy M., Venango County, local historian, 369
Rogers, James, Fayette County ironmaster (1827), 275
Rogers, James Gamble (1867-1947), architect of Wrexham Tower at Yale University, 10
Rogers, John, Fayette County ironmaster (1832), 275
Rogers, Linton, proprietor of Franklin Circulating Library (1831), 59
Rogers, Stephen, carpenter, lumber agent (1884), 53
Rolling Rock Country Club, in old iron furnace area, 383, 405
Rollit, Rev. Dr. A. Dixon, former rector of St. Stephen's Church in Wilkinsburg, rector of Ascension (1953-1964), Dean of Trinity Cathedral (1964), 6-7
Roosevelt, Nicholas, builder of first steamer on the Ohio (1811), 44
Rose, Ephriam, ironmaster (1838), 187
Ross, James, friend of William Croghan, Jr., 135
Ross Furnace, Westmoreland County (1815), 377, 382
Ross Mountain Park Golf Course, Westmoreland County, 378
Roth, Edgar A., painting of glass works, photo, opp. 357
Royer, Daniel, ironmaster, Blair County (1815), 99
Royer, John, ironmaster, Blair County (1815), 99
Rush, Jacob, Justice of the Supreme Court (Pa.) (1786), 141
Russell, William, farm, barn on old site of Miller's Blockhouse, 182
Rutter, Thomas, smith, blooming forge on Manatawny Creek, 78
St. Charles Furnace (Carrs and/or Leatherwood Furnace), Clarion County (1834), 200
St. Clair, Gen. Arthur, builder of Westmoreland County iron furnace (1803), 379, 404
St. Edmund's Academy, earlier Ascension Academy, 6
St. Emma's Convent, Westmoreland County, has original deed of Brownlee (1789), 180, 183
St. Giles Church, Wrexham, Denbigh (Wales), prototype (1506) of Church of the Ascension, Pgh., 10
St. James' (Episcopal) Parish, Homewood (1904), 5
St. John the Divine, Episcopal Cathedral in New York, drawings submitted by William Halsey Wood, 8
St. John's Church, New Haven, Conn. (1895), W. H. Wood, architect, 10
St. John's Furnace, Fayette County (c.1812), 278
St. Michael and All Angels, church in Anistion, Ala., with Romanesque campanile, 10
St. Patrick's Day (1776), British leave Boston, Mass., 251
St. Peter, castle of Knights of Rhodes (1404), 225
St. Peter's, Phila. churchyard site of Church of George Croghan, 122
St. Petersburg, Clarion County, 200
St. Philip's mission, Episcopal, in Oakland district (c.1868), 3; transferred to East Liberty and (1909) to St. James in Homewood, 5
St. Stephen's Church, Wilkinsburg, Rev. A. Dixon Rollit, rector (1953), 6
Salamanders, large iron furnace fireplace bases, 94, 186, 189, 193, 286, 382
Salt Lick Creek (later Indian Creek), Fayette County, 277, 278
Sample, Leonard, ironmaster (1835), Clarion County, 191
Samuel Miles' Rifle Regiment, Am. Rev., 179
Samuels, Milton, of French and Company of New York says Ascension tapestry comes from Palais de Sagan, Paris, 14, 15
Sandburg, Carl, author, quoted on the Altona Conference (1862), 28
Sanville, Florence J., writer on Pa. child labor, 356, 357, 363
Sarah Furnace, Blair County (1832), 98, 192
Sarah Furnace, Clarion County (1860-1867), 206
Saugus River, Mass., first successful American iron works (1643), 78
Saxony, Electors of, notable art collection, 15
Schenck, Gen. Robert, at Pgh. convention (1866), 335
Schenley, Capt. Edward W., m. as third wife, Mary Elizabeth Croghan, 131
Schenley, Mrs. Mary, gives park land (1888), 70, 131, 150
Schenley High School, Pgh., Stanton Boulevard a graduate, 117
Schenleys, donors to hospital, 66
Schollard, William S., manager of Mercer County iron furnace (1846-1882), 292
School of Architecture, Carnegie Institute of Technology, 308
Schoolbooks, in early Pittsburgh, 54
Schools, public (1835f.), in each of four wards, Central High (1855), 60
Schoonmaker, Mrs. J. M., owner of portraits of Mary O'Hara Croghan and William Croghan, Jr., opp. 132 and opp. 133
Schurz, Carl, Michigan radical delegation (1866), 333
Schuyler, Montgomery, 1911, architectural critic, 10
Scotland School, Pa. state orphanage (Civil War), 164
Scots Breed and Susquehanna, by Hubertis M. Cummings (Pgh., 1904), rev., 205-207
Scott, Mrs. James, Pgh. landlady (1826), 109
Scott, Sen. John, companion of President Grant (1869), 349
Scott, Nancy C., rev. of Shetler's West Virginia Civil War Literature: An Annotated Bibliography, 105-106
Scott, Thomas, Asst. Secretary of War (1861), vice president of P.R.R. (1862), 20, 155, 159, 160, 162
Scull, John, printer (1786), 54
Second Ward Grant Club, Pgh. (1869), 349
Sedgwick Co., Kan., sends flood relief corn to W. Pa. (1884), 53
Sennett, Clark and Company, Mercer County operators of iron furnace (1845-1875), 292
Seth and Hill, owners (1837 or earlier) of Mercer County iron furnace, 292
Seward, William H., Secretary of State (1861), influence on Lincoln feared, 20; presidential candidate (1860), 168
Shade Furnace, first iron furnace in Somerset County (c.1807), 293-294
Shadyside district, adjoining the Oakland district of Pittsburgh, 2
Shadyside Furnace, Pgh., built (1793) by George Anshutz, Anthony Beelen and William Amberson; uncertain site, 82; 383
Shadyside School, sold land for site of Church of the Ascension (1912), 5
Sharon, Pa. cooperative foundries union proposed (1849), 68
Sharon Furnace, Mercer County (1846), 291

26
Sharps rifles, new (1862), 242
Shaw, Harry E., of McKee, Pa., 96
Shelbourne, Andrew, report on river trip (1818), 48-49
Shenango Iron Works, New Castle, Pa. (1863), 286
Shenango River, Pa., iron furnace area, 284, 288
Shepley, Rutan and Coolidge, architectural firm (1896), 9
Shetler, Charles, West Virginia Civil War Literature: An Annotated Bibliography (Morgantown, W. Va., 1963), rev., 105-106
Shipbuilding, on upper Ohio River, 43-48
Shippen, Charles, bought Venango County iron furnace, 370; furnace owner (1835), 373
Shippen, Richard, Venango County iron furnace owner (1835), 373
Shippensville, Clarion County, 193, 197, 200
Shippenville Furnace (Blacks Furnace), Clarion County (1832), 200
Shoenberger, E. F., owner of Martha Furnace, Blair County (1862), 96
Shoenberger, Dr. Peter, partner in iron furnaces in Bedford County (1827), 91; in Blair County (1817), and other areas, 97-98, 291
Shoenberger, Agnew and Company, owners of iron furnace in Mercer County (1846), 291
Shorts, R. C., Venango County iron furnace owner, 375
Shryock, John K. and William L., Cambria County ironmasters (1841), 189
Shunk, Christian, ironmaster, Armstrong County (c.1841), 87, 88
Sigel, Gen. Franz, Pittsburgh convention (1866), 335
Sigworth and Fetzer, Clarion County iron furnace owners (1850), 195
Skyscraper, Pgh. monuments and investments, 228; earlier ones often demolished, demolition costly, 230; great slab style, 230f.
Slab Furnace, Venango County (1832), 373
Slifer, Eli, influential Pennsylvania politician (1863), 32n, 33n, 38, 167, 168, 169
Sligo, Clarion County, village, 191, 197, 201
Sligo Furnace, Clarion County (1845-1871), 201
Slippery Rock Creek, iron furnace area, 185, 186, 188, 284, 285, 287
Smallman, Maj. Thomas, partner of Edward Ward, 121n
Smallpox (1881-1882), 66
Smith, Henry, ironmaster, Armstrong County (1846) 88
Smith, N. R., night school, Pgh. (1828), 57
Smith, Russell, Pgh. painter, 56
Smith, William, Washington, Pa., founder of a fortune, 345
Smith, William Wrenshall, Washington, Pa., host of President Grant (1869), 345, 346
Smith and Caldwell, iron furnace owners, Blair County (1836), 96
Smullin and Richards, Venango County iron furnace builders (1838), 368
Snelsire, author, 47
Snowden, John M., editor, slavery debater, 67
Soapfit Furnace, Blair County, illus., insert, 80-81; description, 99
Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial, Pgh. (1904-1907), modeled on Haicarnassus, 233
Somerset County, five old iron furnaces, 293-295
Somerset Furnace, Somerset County (1846), 294
Sophia Furnace, Lawrence County (1853), 286
South Side, Pittsburgh, seventy glass plants, 357
Spang, Henry, ironmaster, large house at Mt. Etna Furnace, 79; illus., insert, 80-81, 97
Speed, James, Atty. Gen., radical (1866), 333-334
Speer, Dr. J. P., Pittsburgh builder (1847) of Westmoreland County iron furnace, 38
Speer, William, Butler County ironmaster (1847), 188
Speer, William, and E. W. and H. M. Davis, Venango County iron furnace operators, 372
Sprague, Gov. William, of Rhode Island, attends war conference (Sept., 1862), 21-22, 24
Spreckels-Call Building, San Francisco (Reid Brothers), model of Keenan Bldg., Pgh. (1907), 232
Spring Hill, estate of William Wrenshall Smith (Washington, Pa., 1867), 345
Springfield Falls, on Mercer County stream, 292
Springfield Furnace, Blair County, large house of John Royer, 79; waterfall, 80; discussion, 99-100
Springfield Furnace (Seth and Hill Furnace), Mercer County (1837), 292
Springhill Furnace, Fayette County modest house of ironmaster, 79; furnace built (1794), rebuilt three times, No. 2 (1805), No. 3 (1830), No. 4 (1854), 279
Sproul, Robert, corporator of Church of the Ascension (1888), 4
Sproul, Blair County, site of Sarah Furnace (1832), 98
Squirrel Hill, Allegheny County, farm of John Murdoch (1826), site then and later, 110, 113
Stackpole, William, ironmaster (1818), 83
Stanton, Edwin M., lawyer, Steubenville and Pittsburgh (c.1847), 68, 151, 152, 161, 171
Stanwix, Gen. John, names Fort Pitt (Nov. 20, 1759), 317
Stapely Furnace (Shippen Furnace), Venango County (1835), 373

27
Steamboat Accountant . . . . , ten sections or divisions (not indexed), 59
Steam engines, used in iron furnaces (c.1850), 80
Stedman, Lyman, lumber dealer (1881), 50, 51, 61, 66, 70
Steinemeyer, Mrs. Charles Siebert (nee Margaret Ellis), 130n
Stephen Foster Memorial, Stanton Belfour manager, 118
Stephens, Alexander, Vice President of the Confederacy, quoted, 27
Stephenson, Clarence D., The Impact of the Slavery Issue on Indiana County (1964), rev., 209
Steubenville, O., land office (c.1811), 45, 110
Steubenville Female Seminary (1841), 57
Steubenville Gazette, antislavery, 67, 73
Steubenville Herald (1832), cited, 74
Steven, S. K., and Davis, Tarring S., authors, quoted, 27
Steven, Thaddeus, supports Curtin (1863), 36; Radical Republican leader (1866), 332
Stevenson, Dr. George H., Pgh. (1823), 130
Stewardson and Laughlin, iron furnace builders, Armstrong County (1851), 89
Stewardson Furnace, Armstrong County (1851), 89-90
Stewart, David, Cambria County (1841) ironmaster, 189; Indiana County ironmaster (c.1845), 282
Stewart, James, Canadian, wounded at Antietam (1862), 243
Stewart, James, Westmoreland County iron furnace owner (1810), 376
Stewart, Mrs. Douglas, commemorative gift from Evelyn F. Evans, 115
Stewart, William, ironmaster (1846), 185, 188
Stewart and Foltz, Lawrence County iron furnace builders (1854), 287
Stitgraves (Sitgraves), Mary Jesup (Boston), daughter of a cousin of Mary Croghan Schenley, 122, 122n
Stockberger, Kinnear and Reuben Noyes, Venango County iron furnace operators, on site bought from Corplanter (1824), 370
Stockton, Frank T., author, 68
Stone, Capt. Roy (1861), eventually brigadier general, 235
Stotz, Charles M., speaker on tour of 1965, 405-406
Street, G. E., English architect, Gothic Revival, 83
Strikes, in Pittsburgh, 67, 68, 69-70
Stuart, Gen. J. E. B., Pa. raid (Oct., 1862), 161, 162
Sullivan, C. C., ironmaster (1846), 185
Sullivan, Gen. John (1776), 260
Summit Hotel, Fayette County, 280
Surgery, on Gov. Curtin (1862?), 32
Swank, James M., Iron Making in Pennsylvania, 281, 282
Swearinger, Joseph P., ironmaster (1836), 185
Sword and Olive Branch: Oliver Otis Howard, by John A. Carpenter (Pgh., 1964), short review, 106-107

Thomson, Catherine, heir of Gen. William Thompson, Shadyside land patent (1769), 2
Thompson, Dr. John, Butler County ironmaster (1822), 187
Thornbrough, Gayle, ed., The Correspondence of John Badollet and Albert Gallatin: 1804-1836, rev., 208
Thurman, Dr. Lawrence, curator at Old Economy, 90
Tippecanoe Furnace, Clarion County (1844), 201
Tod, David, war moderate (1862), 22, 24
Tornado, Ohio River ship, 48
Trade, of England, hurt by American competition (1826), 111; Pa. route injured by Mississippi route and Great Lakes route (1765-1772), 319
Tramway, once ran in Venango County, 375
A Transaction of Free Men, by David Hawke (N. Y., 1964), rev., 304-306
Transportation, during Civil War, chiefly railroad, 159
Transylvania Bible School, Armstrong County, 88

Tapestry, of St. John the Apostle, woven at Tournai (c.1510), gift of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt (1962), 15
Telegraph, est. in Pgh. (1846), 60
Telephone, Pgh. circuit (1877), 61
Tennessee, settlement brought profit to Pgh., 71
Texas Furnace, Venango County (c.1840), 373-374
Thespian Society, Pittsburgh Academy (1817), 55
Thirteenth Pennsylvania Regiment, in Am. Rev., 177
Thirty-Ninth Congress (1866), 332
Thomas, Harold A., "A Lonely Historic Grave," 175-183
Thomas, Dr. Samuel W., Louisville, Ky., research director, Croghan-Schenley genealogy, 122, 122n
Transylvania University Medical Faculty of Lexington, Ky. (c.1823), 55
Trask, Sgt. Augustus A., killed (1862), 243
Travis, W. B., ironmaster, Armstrong County (1846), 88
Treaty of Easton (1758), 326
Treaty of Fort Stanwix (1768), 318
Treaty of Paris (1763), 317
Trenton-Princeton military operation (1776-1777), "the Revolutionary War's crucial campaign," 249
Trevelyon, George O., British historian, 252n, 255n, 264-269
Trevor and McClurg, builders (1810) of Westmoreland County iron furnace, 380
Trimble, Prudence B., librarian-editor, HSWP 1964 report, 213, 215-216
Trowbridge and Livingston, architects, designers of Gulf Building, Pgh., 233
Turnbull, Lyman, Illinois Radical delegate (1866), 333
Tubal-cain, Biblical metallurgist, 77
Tuberculosis (consumption), widely prevalent in Ohio Valley, 65; at Kinzua (1863), 248
Tumult on the Mountains, by Roy B. Clarkson, with drawings by William A. Lunk (Parsons, W. Va., 1964), rev., 210-211
Tunnel, P. & W. Va. R.R., sealed entrance, 81
Turnbull, William, early ironmaster, Alliance Furnace, 271
Turnbull, Marmie and Company, iron furnace firm (1791), 271, 272
Turney, Daniel, deeded land by John Guthrie (1789), 180
Turnpike, from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh, proposed (1808), 71
Two Taverns Hospital (Gettysburg?) in 1863, 248

U
Ulmon, Solomon, Venango County iron furnace owner, 374
Union Arcade (later Union Trust Building), Pgh. (1916), photo, opp. 228; built by Frick (1916), 233
Union Catalog of Manuscripts of Library of Congress, asks information about HSWP holdings, 216
Union Coal and Iron Company, Somerset County (1856), 204
Union Furnace, Fayette County, surviving cabins of laborers, 79, 277
Union Furnace, Venango County (1850), 374
Union Furnaces (No. 1 and No. 2) (Dunbar Furnace), Fayette County (1791), 280; No. 2 first by-product plant, 280
Union Labor organizations, Pgh. (1840-1860), 69
Union Leagues (1863), 37
Union Party (1863), 32
Union soldiers, Cleveland convention (1866), 334
Union Sunday School, Bellefield district, Pgh. (c.1861), 3
United Presbyterian Church (First), organized (1858), 54; General Assembly, Pgh. (1883), 62
U. S. Army (1861), only 16,000 regulars, 153
U. S. Commissioner of Labor (1911), 356, 358
U. S. Congress (1776), 252, 259, 260, 265; (1866), 331
U. S. public domain, proposal (Pgh., 1866) that it be donated to Union soldiers and sailors, 342
United States Road, Cumberland to Wheeling, threatened Pittsburgh trade (1808f.), 71
U. S. Sen. Doc. 645, report on women and children, 358
U. S. Signal Corps (1884), 51
United States Steel Corporation, 308
U. S. time sections, est. (1883), 61
U. S. Treasury Department, not assigned (1861) to Simon Cameron, 151
U. S. War Department, inefficiency and confusion (1861), 19-20; assigned to Simon Cameron, 151; railroad transportation, 155, 159
University of Pennsylvania, Medical Faculty aids Western University of Pennsylvania library (1847), 59
University of Pittsburgh, Pgh., Stanton Belfour an alumnus, 117
University of the State of New York, College of Physicians and Surgeons (c.1863), 55
Upjohn, Richard (1802-1878), American Gothicist, 8; Church of the Ascension (New York City), 13
Urban rivalries (1965), analyzed, 75-76

V
Vallandigham, Clement, "copperhead," 333
Valley Forge, Pittsburgh steamer (1839), first U. S. iron ship, 46
Valley Furnace (Orleans Furnace), Venango County (1848), 374
Valley Furnace, Westmoreland County, photo, opp. 374; description, 382
Van Buren Furnace, Venango County (1836), 374-375
Van Orley, Bernard, the School of, "Flemish Raphael" (1492-1542), tapestry, 14
Vandergrift, Jacob J., Vandergrift Building (1890), glorified loft, 229
Vandergrift Building, Pgh. (1890), photo, opp. 228
Van Trump, James D., “The Church of the Ascension, a Brief Chronicle of its Seventy-five years,” 1-18
Van Tyne, Claude H., The American Revolution, 252, 253, 255, 269
Venango County, twenty-four iron furnaces, 365-376
Victor, Joseph, buys iron furnace (1818), renamed it “Fairview,” 276
Victory Furnace, Venango County, not on passable road, 80, 86; photo, opp. 372; description, 375
Vincennes, Ind., captured by George Rogers Clark, 146
Vincent, B. B., partner in iron furnace, Erie, Pa. (1840), 203
Vincent and Himrod, Mercer County iron furnace builders (1845), 288
Virgin (Blessed), in tapestry, Church of the Ascension, 14; Virgin and Child, triptych, 13-16
Virginia Company, early iron production (1620), 78
Visitors, at Locust Grove, Ky., George Rogers Clark, William Clark, J. J. Audubon, Zachary Taylor, James Monroe and Andrew Jackson, 146-147
Vital statistics, Pgh. (1886), deaths from diphtheria, 249; from scarlet fever, 117; from whooping cough, 66, 109
Volunteer, Ohio River ship, 48
Volwiler, Albert T., historian, early authority on George Croghan, 120

W
W. A. Wells’ Dancing and Fencing School, (1835), 57
W. J. Bagley, tow boat (1883), 51
WPA (c.1935), uses iron furnace stones for bridge abutments, 201
W. S. Packer and Company, Clarion County iron furnace owners (1850), 195
Wages, of boys in glass works, 360
Walkelink, Armstrong County, 85
Walker, Rev. Harry C., priest, Church of the Ascension (1926), 6
Wallace, John, graduate of Western University of Pennsylvania (1829), 57
Wallace, W. W., Pgh. owner of Mercer County iron furnaces, 290-291
Wallace, Willard M., Appeal to Arms (N. Y., 1951), 251, 252, 253, 256
Wallace and Todd, Pgh. firm, owners of Mercer iron furnaces, 290
Wallingford, Mrs. Eliza (Craig), 2, 2n
Walter, Dr. Albert G., Pgh. surgeon (1842-1876), 60
Walters, Raymond, author, cited, 73-74
Wampum, Pa., old iron furnace site (1856), 287
Wampum Furnace, Lawrence County (1856), 287
War Democrats, in Pennsylvania (1861), 29
War of 1812, Pgh. participation, 127
Ward, Edward, half-brother of George Croghan, 120n, 139
Miss Wards’ School, Shadyside (1887), used for religious meetings, 3
Warner, Hoyt Landon, Progressivism in Ohio, 1897-1917 (Columbus, O., 1964), rev., 401-402
Warren County, 235-248 passim
Warren Mail (1862), 235, 239, 242
Washburn, Gov. Israel, of Maine, attends war conference (Sept., 1862), 21
Washington, George, land conflict with George Croghan, 121f.; 138f.; 223; mission of 1753, 249; with Braddock (1755), 249-250; with Forbes (1758), 250
“General Washington and the Revolution’s Crucial Campaign,” by Warren W. Hassler, Jr., 249-270
Washington, John Augustine, brother of George, 255
Washington, Pa. (1826), John Mitchell family, 110, 282; (1869), 345-353 passim
Washington, Pa., cornerstone laid by President Grant (1869), 350; by-passed by railroad; telegraph (1869), 351
Washington, Pa., Reporter (1869), 350
Washington Furnace, Clarion County (1846-1855), 201
Washington Furnace, Westmoreland County (1809), 382
Washington Furnace Inn, Westmoreland County, 382
Washington’s campaign plan (Dec., 1776), 261
Water, provisions inadequate, acute problem (c.1820), 63; filtration introduced (1907), 65
Waters, Richard, family, owners of Locust Grove estate (Ky., 1893), 145
Watson, Ellen, daughter of John Watson, unmarried, 14
Watson, John Fanning, Annals, reports the first Pa. iron furnace, 78
Watson, Mrs. John, 3rd, nee Ellen Murdoch, 114
Watson, William, son of John Watson, 114
Webster Furnace, Venango County (1838), 376
Weed, Thurlow, New York politician consulted (1862), 20
Weeden, William Babcock, historian, quoted, 25, 27, 27n Week and Dempseck, Venango County iron furnace owners (1838), 376
Wellersburg, Somerset County iron furnace (1856), 294-295
Wellsburg Furnace, Somerset County (1866-1869), 294-295
Wellington, Lee and Porter, Venango County iron furnace firm (c.1848), 374
Wellsburg Academy (1850), no cholera (Feb., 1850), 65
Wellsburg Weekly Herald (c.1860), advertises Pgh. commercial schools, 59; reports (1850-1851) cholera along the Ohio, 65
West Middlesex, Mercer County iron furnace area, 292
West Middlesex Furnace, Mercer County (1845-1875), 292
West Virginia, rebel activity (April, 1863), 161
West Virginia Civil War Literature: An Annotated Bibliography, by Charles Shetler (Morgantown, W. Va., 1963), rev., 105-106
Western Missionary Society, Pgh. (1802), 55
Western Pennsylvania, ironmaster families, Measons, Shoenbergers, 79
Western Pennsylvania, military school of George Washington, 265
Western Pennsylvania Hospital (1848), Croghan-Schenley land donation, 133, 134
Western Theological Seminary, 57
Western University of Pennsylvania, draws out-of-town students (1825, 1829), 57, 58; minutes of Board of Trustees, entries of 1847, 1848 and 1861, cited, 59, 62, 65
Westinghouse, George, inventor of telephone switch (1880), 61; of airbrake (1869), 61-62; early skyscraper monumental building, 228-229; photo, opp. 229
Westmoreland County, fourteen iron furnaces, 376-383
Westmoreland Furnace, Westmoreland County (1794), 383
Wharton Furnace, Fayette County (1839-1873), produced cannon balls, 280
Wheeling (Va., W. Va.), superior navigation (c.1811), 45; iron workers aid Pgh. strike (1850), 68; rival of Pgh., 71, 72; visited (1826), 110; (in 1869), 351, 353
White, Mrs., and her children, killed by Indians (1782), 179
White, Gen. Foster, coowner of Westmoreland County iron furnace, 377
White, James D., Lawrence County iron furnace builder (1838), 284
White House Conference of governors (May, 1861), 20
White Plains, N. Y. (1776), 252, 255
Whitehall, London, England, imperial colonial control center (1763f.), 319
Whitehead, Bishop Cortland, visited St. Philip's Mission (1887), 3; Official Diary of, 3; died (1922), 6
Whitney, Ruggles, ironmaster (1818), 83
Whittaker, Aaron, ironmaster, 82
The Wigwam, Pgh. convention hall (1866), 335
Wildcat region, Pa., 236
Wildcat Furnace (Franklin Furnace), Clarion County (1843), 202
Wile, Robert, farm house, on site of Indian massacre (1877), 179, 182
William Penn Hotel, later Penn-Sheraton, a Frick interest (1915-1916), 231
Williams, Dr., Venango County iron furnace owner (1841-1842), 369
Williams, Edward G., footnote, on article, 179; rev. of O'Meara's Guns at the Forks, 297-299
Williamsburg, Blair County, 93, 99
Williamsburg Furnace, another name for Juniata Furnace, Blair County, 96
Willie Austen, steamboat (1884), 53
Willis's Creek, later Will's Creek, town on Ohio River, 45
Wilroy Furnace, Lawrence County (1854), 287
Wilson, James, antislavery editor, 67, 68
Wilson, John and Samuel, Clarion County ironmasters (1834), 200
Wilson, Martin, leases (1854) Lawrence County iron furnace, 287
Winebiddle, Miss. m. John Murdoch, 3rd, four children, 114
Winfield Coal Company, Butler County (1856), 188; photo, opp. 188
Winfield Furnace, Butler County (1848), 188; photo, opp. 188
Winmarleigh, Newark (N. J.), home of William Halsey Wood (architect), 7
Winthrop, John, Jr., promoted iron works (1643), 78
Wolf, Hazel, writer on Civil War, 168
Woff, Leon, Lockout (N. Y., 1965), rev., 399-400
Woman's Historical Society, Pgh., seven meetings at HSWP (1964), 215
Women's Club of Altoona, occupy storehouse of old iron furnace, 93
Wood, Alan W., vestryman, Church of the Ascension (1887), 4
Wood, Mrs. Florence, Memories of William Halsey Wood, 7n
Wood, James, Pgh. iron furnace proprietor (1858-1867), 91
Wood, William Halsey, of Newark, N. J., architect of stone structure of Church of the Ascension (d.1897), 7, 13
Woodbury, Bedford County iron furnace site, 91, 98
Woodward, Judge George W., Democratic gubernatorial candidate (1863), 33, 34
Woodward, Judge John, Democratic candidate (1863), 157
Wool, Gen. (John E. ?), oldest major-general in regular army (1866), 334
Woolen mill, Steubenville, O. (1826), 111-112
Woolworth Building, N. Y. (c.1916), 231
Wordsworth, William, poet, 225
Workman, Andrew, ironmaster, Armstrong County (1846), 88
World War (First), Philip Benney a victim, 17
World War II, Stanton Belfour a lieutenant commander in U. S. Navy, 117
Wrenshall, Ellen, m. Frederick Dent, mother of Julia Dent, 345
Wrenshall, Fanny, m. William Smith, 345
Wrexham Tower, Yale University, burial place of Eli Yale, 10
Wright, Frank Lloyd, architect of his home

“Taliesin,” 8
Wright, Col. John, go-between of Curtin and Stanton (1862), 160
Wright, John C., New Lisbon, O., attorney (1829), 55
Wrigley, A. B., corporator of Church of the Ascension (1888), 4

Y
Yates, Gov. Richard, of Ill., sends personal agent to Cleveland Conference (1861), 20, 24
Young, Arthur M., The Voice That Speakseth Clear (1957), 60
Young, John Russell, Philadelphia Press (1862), comment on Altoona address, 27

Z
Zanesville, O., ironworks aid Pgh. strikers (1850), 68