

EDITORIAL POLICY

The Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine reflects the primary objects of the Society, namely, "to increase and diffuse knowledge of the history of Western Pennsylvania." Western Pennsylvania is defined broadly as "the headwaters of the Ohio River system and items, events, etc., related thereto." Manuscripts dealing with subject matter outside this category will be considered only if they contain material of special importance and historical value.

The use of primary source material, new interpretation, and unique subject matter are taken into consideration before a decision is reached on publication. Originality of treatment, general interest, and style are additional criteria for acceptance. At least two outside readers referee each manuscript. A special section of the magazine is reserved for papers in the more specialized category of reminiscences or family history. Please allow ten weeks for review of each manuscript.

Those interested in submitting manuscripts should refer to A Manual of Style (1969 edition), published by the University of Chicago, for matters of editorial style. Recent back issues of the Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine should be consulted for the preferred form in footnoting and quantity of footnotes (brevity is strongly recommended). Illustrative material pertinent to the subject matter of the manuscript is welcomed.

Two copies of the article should be submitted together with a stamped, self-addressed envelope. The author should retain a copy. The manuscript must be typewritten (pica type preferred), double spaced, with footnotes at the end, and should not exceed thirty pages in length.

Persons interested in reviewing books for the Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine are invited to write the editor requesting addition to the list of reviewers. A vita sheet indicating field of specialization, dissertation topic, and academic affiliation should be submitted. Graduate students and recent Ph.D.s are especially encouraged to contribute. Reviews must not exceed 650 words, or approximately three pages, double space, pica type. Unsolicited book reviews will not be accepted.

Letters to the editor regarding substantive or interpretive issues expressed in articles or reviews are welcome. All communications should be addressed to Editor, Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine, 4338 Bigelow Boulevard, Pittsburgh, PA 15213. (412) 681-5533.
