THE Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania is a nonprofit cultural institution open to the public. Since its founding in 1879, the Society has collected, preserved and interpreted the heritage of Pittsburgh and its region. It operates Library and Archives, Publications and Museum Programs departments. In early 1995, the Society will open a new 160,000 square-foot facility, the Pittsburgh Regional History Center, near downtown Pittsburgh.

Membership: Membership is open to anyone interested in the Society's goals and activities. Classes of annual membership and dues are as follows: Student, $20; Individual, $30; Family, $40; Organization, $50; Patron, $100; Friend, $250; Benefactor, $500. Membership includes free admission to the Society's museum and library, quarterly issues of Pittsburgh History and the Society's newsletter, invitation to the new members' reception and special members-only events, the Society's annual report, and discounts on tours, lectures, films, gift items and other services.

Hours: Tuesday through Saturday, 9:30 to 4:30. A donation is requested for admission. Gallery tours and other public programs are available by appointment.
