Vatican Splendors: A Journey through Faith and Art

Presenting Sponsors:

- Federated Investors, Inc.
- UPMC

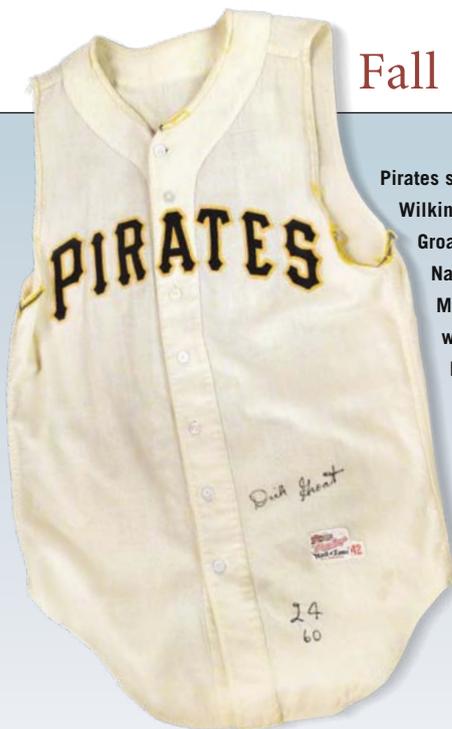

Opening October 2, 2010

Experience 2,000 years of art, history, and culture, right here at the History Center. Visitors to Vatican Splendors will find the History Center open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, with extended hours during the winter holiday season. Tickets for Vatican Splendors are available through Ticketmaster, through the History Center's e-store, or in-person at the History Center.

Vatican Splendors is organized and circulated in conjunction with the Congregazione per l'Evangelizzazione dei Popoli of the Vatican City State. The exhibition is produced by Evergreen Exhibitions in association with the Senator John Heinz History Center. Objects in the exhibition are on loan from the Reverenda Fabbrica of Saint Peter, the Basilica of Saint Paul Outside-the-Walls, the Basilica of Saint Mary Major, the Vatican Library, the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples, and the Apostolic Floreria. Additional objects are on loan by the Papal Swiss Guard and private collections.

To achieve true excellence, you have to reach beyond the bounds.

It takes, courage, drive, and determination to arrive at remarkable accomplishments. Beyond the Bounds: A History of UPMC tells the exciting, dynamic story of how two visionary colleagues broke free from the confining grasp of traditional thinking to transform UPMC into one of the country's fastest growing nonprofit health systems.

Written by Mary Brignano, Beyond the Bounds chronicles the 35-year transformation of a loose network of local hospitals into the mighty engine that continues to power positive change and economic progress in Pittsburgh, western Pennsylvania, and points around the globe. This beautifully photographed book is a must for anyone committed to following their dreams and blazing a trail to excellence.

Be inspired by UPMC's impressive history of reaching far beyond the bounds of the expected.
