Gridiron Glory: The Best of the Pro Football Hall of Fame

October 6, 2012 through January 6, 2013

The Pro Football Hall of Fame is celebrating its 50th anniversary and has collaborated with the History Center to create a major exhibition focusing on the history of pro football.

Gridiron Glory: The Best of the Pro Football Hall of Fame will premier at the History Center before embarking on a national tour. Gridiron Glory will be the most comprehensive traveling exhibition ever created on America's most popular sport.

Included are football artifacts such as jerseys and helmets worn by iconic players, balls used in historic games, rare photos, one-of-a-kind documents from the Pro Football Hall of Fame collections, interactive displays, and unique items from legendary Steelers.

Game ball awarded to Lynn Swann, Nov. 27, 1978. Swann had one of the best performances of his record setting 1978 season in this Monday night game in San Francisco with eight carries for 137 yards and two touchdowns.

Glass: Shattering Notions — For more than 200 years this region has been a center for innovation in the design, production, and marketing of glass. The nation's major industrial producer from 1840 until 1950, the area remains home to factories, but also to artists such as Kathleen Mulcahy who created this fanciful spinner group that demonstrates the art and beauty of glass.
