

LEFT: Aerial view of the point, 1954.
HHC Detre L&A, Allegheny Conference on Community Development
Photographs, MSP285.B007.F01.106.

RIGHT: Aerial view of Point State Park, late 1960s.
HHC Detre L&A, Allegheny Conference on Community Development
Photographs, MSP285.B008.F16.104.

BELOW: Point State Park, c. 1969.
HHC Detre L&A, Allegheny Conference on Community Development
Photographs, MSP285.B008.F16.101.

THE CONSTRUCTION OF FORT PITT MUSEUM WAS AN INTEGRAL PART OF POINT STATE PARK'S DEVELOPMENT. THE COLOR PHOTO SHOWS THE RECREATED OUTLINE OF ONE OF ITS FIVE BASTIONS IN THE FOREGROUND. BEHIND THE BASTION IS THE BRIDGE THAT CARRIES I-279 ABOVE THE PARK, THE OUTLINE OF FORT DUQUESNE, THE MANCHESTER BRIDGE (REMOVED IN 1970), THREE RIVERS STADIUM UNDER CONSTRUCTION, AND THE FORT DUQUESNE BRIDGE, WHICH OPENED TO TRAFFIC ON OCTOBER 17, 1969.

