Everyone interested in the history of Pittsburgh and western Pennsylvania is welcome to join this organization, and a simple application or request for information addressed to its office opens the way.

Moreover, both members and friends are invited to provide much needed material, as well as moral support, so that the Society may render increasingly effective public service. Members are privileged to enroll under classifications calling for more than the minimum fee; and friends as well as members may add to the resources through gifts or bequests.

The effect of substantial contributions toward the endowment of the Society would be immeasurable; for this Society is the century old medium for expression of a community's regard for its historical heritage.

Bequests may be worded simply as follows:

I hereby give and bequeath to The Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania in the city of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars.
